London Times on the Chinese Question—Harvard Boat Crew Practising—English Claims on Mexico—The Carlist Outburst in Spain—French Government Reforms—Royal Marriage.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, July 29.—The Times to-day has an article on the Chinese question in the United States. It thinks the conflict of races in California cannot be solved by heavy duties on immigration or by street outrages. It is impossible to suppose the Chinese can be kept out of America. Inheriting an ancient civilization and perfect economic methods, but destitute of the strength and toughness of moral fibre which support authority, the Chinese may be welcome as assistants in colonization, not feared as a race likely to dominate in the future.

LIVERPOOL, July 29.—A dispatch from Chester county, thirty-four miles from this city, contains the following: "A man, name unknown, committed suicide here to-day by throwing himself under the wheels of a railroad train. A number of securities of various kinds—part of the proceeds of the Ocean National Bank robbery at New York some time ago—were found on his body."

In the House of Commons to-night Mr. Otway, Under Secretary of Foreign Affairs, stated the present condition of the relations between England and Mexico prevented Her Majesty's government from officially aiding the holders of Mexican bonds in the prosecution of their claims, but owing to the importance of the subject it would be glad to hear of any satisfactory arrangements for a set-settlement.

The Harvard crew was out on the Thames twice to-day. In the morning they rowed from Putney to Hammersmith and back, and in the afternoon they rowed to Mortlake and returned. They have now settled down to steady practice.

FRANCE.

PARIS, July 29.—The Patrie has reason to believe the political reforms soon to be proposed to the Senate, will be more liberal than the Emperor's message to the Corps Legislatif indicated. The Patrie intimates that the right of Parliamentary initiative and of preventing the orders of the day will be granted to the Corps Legislatif, while alterations will be made in the Senate, the sittings of which will probably become public.

PARIS, July 29.—A large number of military furloughs have been granted or extended, which, it is es imated, will be equivalent to the reduction of the army by 18,000 men.

The La Liberte reports that the Spanish Minister here has received information that the disturbances in Spain have only commenced, not ended, but the Carlists in Paris deem their cause lost.

SPAIN.

MADRID, July 29.—The Carlist agitators are desperate. A plot to assassinate the Captain General of Catalonia has been discovered and frustrated. The Carlist forces in the province of Cindid Real fled to the Valley of Alcadia, with the Government troops in swift pursuit. Several of the Carlists, captured with arms in their hands, have been condemned to death by a Council of War, but efforts will be made to have their sentences commuted.

RUSSIA.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 29.—The serfs have petitioned the Czar for an extension of their rights of religion and education.

SWEDEN.

STOCKHOLM, July 29.—The Prince Royal of Denmark was married to-day to the Princess Lousie of Sweden.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

LONDON, July 29.—Consols for money 93¾; for account 93¾@93¾. Five-Twenty Bonds quiet at 83¾; do. at Frankfort, 87¾@88. Stocks quiet: Erie, 19¾; Illinois, 93¾. Paris Bourse firm at 72f. 27c.

LIVERPOOL, July 29.—Cotton market a shade firmer; middling uplands, 12⅞d.; do. Orleans 12⅞d.; sales of 10,000 bales. Breadstuffs quiet and steady. California white wheat 10s. 7d.; red western 9s. 2d. Western Flour 23s. 6d. Corn; mixed 30s. for old, and 29s. for new. Oats 3s. 6d. Pork 100s. Beef 90s. Lard 70s. Cheese 62s. Produce unchanged.

LONDON, July 29.—Petroleum quiet. Sugar unchanged. Linseed oil quiet and steady. Tallow 46s. Petroleum at Antwerp 50f. Bullion in the Bank of England has increased £92,000; in the Bank of France 460,000f.

Prohibition in Massachusetts.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BOSTON, July 29.—At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Massachusetts State Temperance alliance, the recent vote requesting W. B. Spooner to resign the presidency of the alliance, was unanimously rescinded.

A resolution was adopted approving of the call by the Prohibitory Committee for a State Temperance Convention, and Mr. Spooner, Rev. Dr. Morien and Rev. Mr. Shager were designated a Co operative Committee.

Rev. Mr. Dinger, of the German Methodist Episcopal Church at Boston Highlands, who was present by invitation, made an address, in which he said he was opposed to the sale of lager beer, being satisfied that it was intoxicating and injurious to the German population. He thought if a meeting were called of the Germans who favor the present law much good would result.

Prof. Weber, of Illinois, said the temperance people were watching the cause in Massachusetts with great interest. The Temperance Association of Illinois had formed an independent organization and would stand their ground, and that all over the west they were massing, and it would be a question of national policy.

CUBAN REVOLUTION.

Interesting Letter—Atrocity at the Execution of Creoles—The Infamous Francisco Peres—Activity of Insurgents.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, July 29.—An interesting letter relative to the Cuban situation has come to light. A Spanish gentleman went to Cuba several months ago to claim inheritance that had been left him. He says that at Nuevitas he learned that nine Creoles were going to be shot. They passed near him with a firm step, with head erect, and with a look of brave determination they arrived at the fatal spot. They seated themselves upon a bench already prepared for them, and at the sound of the voice of the officer who gave the word of fire, cried, "Hurrah for Cuba," "Hurrah for Cespedes." After they fell, the volunteers struck bayonets into their bodies. At Gilbara he saw a group of armed men marching toward a house of modest appearance, and wishing to see what was about to be done he followed the soldiers, who arrived before the door and halted awhile, and three of the party entered. The latter cried out at this moment, "Here is the insurrecto, here is the maubi!" "What do you wish?" said a young man. "If it's I for whom you search, I am at your service, but do not frighten my father and mother." Without ceremony the volunters seized the speaker and beat him along the road with the butts of their muskets until they got close to the cemetery, and then ran him through with at least twenty bayonets.

From Santiago de Cuba comes news of a thousand atrocities committed by the infamous Francisco Peres, to whom the Governor in that part of the island had entrusted the direction of matters in Guanatanamo and Baracoa. This bad man, wanting in every sentiment of humanity and of every moral principle, had been robbing and assassinating every Cuban who was believed to be liberal. Whole families in the vicinity of Guanatanamo had been murdered by this bandit. Young and old persons had been butchered by his knife and his companions. Not being satisfied with the villainies committed here, he passed on to Baracoa, where, aided by a few other assassins, they went from house to house, and hundreds of persons were in this way murdered, and with full consent and knowledge of the authorities.

HAVANA, July 29.—The insurgents are quite active in the central department. They lately destroyed a great deal of property about Trinidad. A few days since a large band of insurgents attacked Puerto Principe, but after a short engagement they were beaten off with considerable loss. Conscription will soon be put in force in Cuba.

NEW YORK CITY.

Fire Insurance Company Failure—Railroad Certificate Forgery—A Forger Surrenders Himself—Isaac Toucey Dying.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, July 29, 1869.

The Baltic Fire Insurance Company failed yesterday. It commenced business in 1864, and has never paid a dividend, the expenditures having always exceeded the receipts. A deficiency in the capital was disclosed last winter of eighty thousand dollars, in consequence of which the Company has retired from business.

The United States Assistant Treasurer will commence next week to report receipts, payments and balances in gold and currency separately.

Jay Gould, James Fisk, Jr., F. A. Lane, William Tweed and Peter B. Sweeney have purchased a controlling interest in the stock of the First National Bank, which it is reported will become the depository of the Erie Company and New York city funds.

Mr. Bigelow enters upon his duties as chief editor of the Times next week.

The three last Cuban prisoners were released from Fort Lafayette to-day, on pledge not to fight against Spain.

Hon. Isaac Toucey is reported at the point of death at New Haven.

Patrick Joyce surrendered himself to the police to-day for forging the signature of a man named Jackson at Louisville, last November, to a check for eight hundred dollars.

The examination of the case of George A. Abbott shows that in addition to the forgeries of Rock Island certificates he had altered some Michigan Central certificates to larger amounts, which he was arrested too soon to attempt to dispose of, and that he had ordered the purchase of some Pacific Mail stock, probably for like purpose. Abbott was refused bail and committed for trial. This is one of the greatest swindles ever attempted, the amount involved being nearly $700,000.

Thirteen of the principal clothing houses of the city have refused to pay the increase of thirty-five per cent. demanded by employes. The latter, numbering fifteen hundred, have struck, by order of the Tailors' Union.

It is announced the new Handsom cabs will be in readiness for use in large numbers by the end of September.

J. Woodruff Lewis is under arrest at Hartford, charged with forging a soldiers bounty certificate in this city.

Riot on Board a Steamboat—Eight Men Reported Killed.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, July 29.—A terrible riot is reported to have occurred on board the steamer Dubuque, at Hampton, on the Mississippi river, about ten miles above Rock Island. A number of raftsmen, who took passage on the boat at Rock Island, insisted on being allowed to occupy the cabin and on being refused commenced a row which became general, not only with the crew but the passengers. Eight men are reported killed. The Sheriff of Rock Island was telegraphed and he immediately started for the scene of the riot with a large police force.

Politics in Tennessee.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NASHVILLE, July 29.—The Senter Democrats to-day nominated a ticket to represent this county in the Legislature. For Senator, Henry Cooper; for Representatives, R. H. Rhea and J. D. Walker, the latter an Indiana man. The Senter Republicans and Stokes Republicans also have tickets in the field.

Return of the President from Long Branch—Cabinet Session—Navy Dispatches from Japan—Public Land Surveys—The Mississippi Situation.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, July 29, 1869.

FROM JAPAN.

Rear Admiral Rowan, commanding the Atlantic squadron, in a dispatch dated Yokohoma, June 26th, says the Japanese Parliament is yet in session, but not open to foreigners. It is reported that many important measures are under consideration, mostly relating to foreigners, foreign intercourse and finance. It is probable the rebel forces are on the Island of Yeddo have been captured or dispersed. Many of the Princes have surrendered their long cherished feudal rights for the general good. Already have the Japanese far outstripped the Chinese in progress towards christian civilization. The Government has troops uniformed and armed with the latest improved breech-loading gun; the naval vessels are well armed; a hospital is being built at Hiago, is in charge of an American surgeon, and is open to foreigners; lighthouses are built and lighted, and a lightship is being equipped to be stationed off that point. The coal mines are successfully worked and supply one squadron with coal, while the Chinese refuse to allow foreigners to mine coal. The Duke of Edinburg is expected in the beginning of August. The English Vice Admiral says he will be received as Captain of the Galata. There are now in this port an iron clad frigate, a line-of-battle ship, three gun boats and two transports of the English squadron, one frigate and two gun boats of the French, one Prussian and one Dutch corvette, the Monocacy and the Piscataqua. The health of the squadron is excellent.

Commander E. P. Williams, commanding the United States steamer Oneida, reports to the Navy Department that on the morning of the 20th of June the Mikado's fleet moved in and attacked the ships and fortifications of the northern party under Enomatto, and after an engagement of twenty six hours took possession of the towns and destroyed the vessels Eagle and Emperor, belonging to the northern party, after having one of their own vessels blown up by a shell, which entered the powder magazine. The forces of Enomatto have possession of the Ramida fort and Fort Benter and a line of earthworks extending across the peninsula. Enomatto has about three thousand men, and the Mikado eight thousand. The earthworks and forts were invested and batteries are being thrown up preparatory to a regular siege of all the works held by Enomatto's party.

PUBLIC LAND SURVEYS.

The Land Office to-day issued instructions to all the Surveyor Generals of the United States, calling on them for information concerning surveying departments, to the effect, viz: first, the number of acres of agricultural land and the comparative areas of agricultural and mineral lands; second, the number of acres of grazing land; third, the same covered by private claims; fourth, the same of reclaimable swamp lands; fifth, the same of sterile land that may be reclaimed by irrigation or by other means; sixth, the number of acres broken by mountain ranges; seventh, the number of acres of timber land; eighth, what is the number of cities and towns; and ninth, what is the aggregate length of railroads completed, in progress of construction and projected. The foregoing information is designed to be embodied in the forthcoming report of the Commissioner.

HAD AN INTERVIEW.

The Radical Mississippi delegation is reported to have had an interview recently with the President on the Mississippi question, and to have told him that Judge Dent and his brother-in-law was a tool of the old rebels, and had received sums of money in time past to influence votes in Congress. The President listened attentively and agreed if they could prove their assertions to do his part towards giving the Administration's support to the other candidate. The delegation are now supplied with proof which they will lay before him.

THE CABINET SESSION.

The Cabinet was in session to-day three or four hours, engaged in the transaction of business which had accumulated during the President's absence. Many persons supposed that the subject of the application of the iron clad oath to the members of the Virginia Legislature would come before the Cabinet, but it is ascertained from an official source that the question was not even mentioned. The President, several weeks ago, in response to an inquiry, said it would be submitted to the Attorney General.

GOING ON A TOUR.

The House Committee on Naval Affairs, in imitation of the inland excursions of the Ways and Means and other Committees, propose going on a junketing tour. They will embark on the revenue cutter Michigan and make a tour of the Lakes, for the purpose of examining what additional legislation, if any, is necessary for the better enforcement of the revenue laws on the frontier and for the suppression of smuggling. The Committee will be gone some days.

REVENUE DECISION.

Commissioner Delano decides that when persons purchase old rails, re-roll them, and then sell them to Railroad Companies, they are to all intents and purposes manufacturers of new rails, and as such liable to the special tax of two dollars upon all such sales in excess of $1,250 per quarter, under section four of the act of March 31st, 1868.

RETURNED.

President Grant returned to Washington this morning, accompanied by his Private Secretary, Gen. Porter, and Secretary Fish. A special Cabinet meeting was held at the Executive Mansion, all the members being present except Postmaster General Cresswell. The President will return to Long Branch to-morrow.

CONTRACT AWARDED.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue to-day awarded to the Townsend Manufacturing Company, of Buffalo, the contract for supplying its patent lock for distilleries. The lock has a register, in addition to the seal.

APPOINTMENTS.

The President to-day appointed Archibald Sterling United States Attorney for Maryland, and August Ludlow Case Chief of the Bureau of Ordnance, Navy Department, vice Rear Admiral Dahlgren resigned.

INVESTIGATION ORDERED.

The Indian Bureau has ordered an investigation into the recently reported outrages by Apache Indians in New Mexico.

GO TO SARATOGA.

The President and family and suite will visit Saratoga on Tuesday, to accept hospitalities to be tendered him there.

STILL AT HOME.

Postmaster General Cresswell is still at his home near Elkton, Md., suffering from a broken arm.

CUSTOMS RECEIPTS.

The customs receipts last week were $3,498,596.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

—In some sections of Georgia no rain has fallen for four weeks, while in others there has been too much.

—Mr. A. H. Van Buren, who was reported as injured at the Briggs House, Chicago, died a little after ten o'clock on Wednesday night.

—The officers who went to the scene of the anti-Rent outrages in New York, to serve warrants, simply told the parties that they were wanted in Court on Friday.

—Prof. Compton, of New York. Prof. Abbe, of Cincinnati Observatory, and others, have left for Sioux City, to make observations of the eclipse on the seventh of August.

—John Griffin was hung in Hamilton, Ohio, yesterday, for the murder of Micha Prickell. He protested his innocence to the last and charged Joe Kelly with the murder for which he himself was hung.

—Fredrick Eli, Wednesday afternoon, in Maysville, Ky., was fighting Thos. Hughes. He got him down and drew a knife to stab him, when Thomas drew a pistol, shot and killed Eli. Both are said to be constables.

—A young married man named E. Sterritt, committed suicide, at St. Louis, by hanging. Domestic trouble and depression of mind, produced by losing $3,000 by the failure of Jno. T. Darby & Co, bankers, led to the act.

—There was a heavy thunder storm at Rochester Wednesday afternoon. Considerable damage was done to the grain. Peter Lentlers, of Wayne county, New York, was instantly killed by lightning while riding on a load of hay.

—It is understood that the Directors of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad propose to pay $3,000 for medical services rendered Judge J. S. Black, of Pennsylvania, whose arm was broken some time since on one of the South bound trains.

—Mr. Saunders, of Davenport, Iowa, Chairman of the Committee recently appointed by Mr. Willey, of St. Louis, to carry out the instructions of the New Orleans Convention, has announced that Keokuk, Iowa, has been determined upon as the place for the holding of the next Commercial Convention, but the time has not yet been designated.

—The Philological Convention, at Poughkeepsie, New York, adjourned sine die yesterday, and the members immediately thereafter organized the American Philological Association, with the following permanent officers: President, D. Taylor, of Phillips Academy; Secretary, Professor Silbe; Treasurer, Hon. J. H. Trumbull. Thereupon the association resumed the business that was before the Convention.

New Orleans Revenue Frauds.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW ORLEANS, July 29.—The tobacco manufactory of Gonzgards & Schneider, was seized yesterday by Collector Stockdale for violation of the revenue. Solicitor of the Treasury Banfield returned to Washington last night, having completed his investigations here.

An Honest New York View of the Pennsylvania Platform.

The New York Citizen, an able Democratic paper, in a long article on "Democratic Principles and Practices," has the following remarks applicable to the Democracy that met in convention lately at Harrisburg:

"We hold that the Democracy, to succeed, must discard old issues, and bring itself fairly up to the times. It is useless to quarrel over questions that the force of circumstances has settled, we cannot re-enslave the negro if we would; our Southern brethern placed a whip in the hands of our enemies to drive us naked through the world; the rebel States of their own motion went out of the Union, and they had to be brought back by "military despotism," or they never would have come back at all. It was to the military tyrannies of Sherman, the violences of Sheridan, the impositions of Hancock, and the persistencies of Grant, that we owe the restoration of the Union on any terms.

"What is there in the Pennsylvania platform? The first three clauses are devoted to the negro, as if everybody did not know that we do not approve of negro suffrage, but that at the same time we cannot help ourselves, and have to thank the obstinacy of the former slaveholders, even after defeat in arms, for the enforcement of so unwise a principle. Then we have a word in favor of reform, and another in support of a republican measure, to assist laboring men. Next, there is a denunciation of the last Congress, which is well enough, and certainly fully justified in the opinion of the entire country. Then comes a clause for the soldiers, but not a word for the war in which they fought. After that we find a paragraph about foreign matters, which means anything or nothing; and the whole winds up with a denunciation of the present revenue system.

"This is all. Not a sentence on the subject of the Alabama claims or the Cuban question, or of the tariff that wrongs the poor man to help the rich. No condemnation of the rebellion against which the soldiers fought, even though the soldiers are praised—the omission being an insult, if any reference to the subject were proper. No fitting expression in favor of economy in public expenditures; nothing, in fact, first or last, but the old negro question and general abuse of Republicans. The self-same grumbling without proposing an improvement; the same refusal to understand the altered position of the whole country, which has led to defeat so frequently. The nomination of a man with nothing to recommend him but the faculty of heaping up wealth, with no record worth mentioning, and nothing about him to arouse enthusiasm but his money. Not the first sign of true loyalty, nor the least evidence of devotion to the best interests of the whole country. Under such circumstances we do not expect nor wish that the Democrats should carry Pennsylvania.

"We do not wish this simply because it would be a triumph of the Vallandighams and Pendletons, and the old school that never learns and never forgets; the former slave power toadies, who imagine that slavery was a thing of beauty and a joy forever, instead of being at best but a cruel necessity of the Constitution. A triumph on such principles and with such candidates would only revive the dead men of the North and the South, the putrescent bodies which have been smothered under the loyalty of the nation; the malignant rebels, whether they register themselves as enemies of the nation in Cincinnati, Harrisburg, or New Orleans. A victory now would bring the extremists back to life and power, and with them another defeat in 1870. The Republicans are begging for admission amongst us, provided they can come in with honor; many old Democrats are anxious to return to their first love; but they will not leave their loyalty or self-respect behind. Accept certain results of the war, exhibit an understanding of the altered phase of some public matters—concede even something for harmony, and the Democracy is as sure to carry the next national elections as that the sun shall shine in summer and the snow fall in winter. Continue in the old rut, and we shall suffer fresh and more overwhelming defeats under the increasing patriotism of the people, and the daily augmentation of their natural pride in their success in the war; we shall be beaten at all points until our party falls to pieces from very rottenness."

LATELY, at a horse show in London, a novelty was exhibited in the form of a vehicle capable of being changed at pleasure into a four-wheeled or two-wheeled carriage. In the former condition it is capable of carrying six persons. By a simple contrivance the whole front carriage, wheels, wings and dasher can be removed, and the back part then forms a pretty car for one horse or pony. The change is effected merely by loosening four screws, and can be managed in a few minutes.

A LETTER FROM MAINE.

[Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MAINE, July 22, 1869.

We have already stated some facts, valuable in our opinion, elicited by the recent anniversaries of our schools of learning. There is one more, which is of especial interest to Pittsburgh. Persons coming to our city often speak with surprise and astonishment of the little knowledge there is of the Western University. Where a college is the place of interest in a borough or locality, it will, of course, be generally known. In a large and growing city, however, where there are costly churches and numerous and stately edifices for manufactures and various kinds of business, the college may be overshadowed. It may be unknown to the mass of the people, even well educated men; men interested in some institution of an inferior character in some small place may be ignorant of the location or character of a college in their own city. "The mill" might, in some places, designate some locality, but it would be very indefinite in Pittsburgh. A so-called great institution in some place might be unnoticed and unknown in Pittsburgh, and we are not an exception in this respect.

Columbia College, a very wealthy institution in New York city, has just held its one hundred and sixteenth commencement, being one of the oldest seats of learning in the United States. It has its school of letters and science, school of mines, school of law and school of medicine. It numbers a long list of highly distinguished names among its numerous alumni, as John Jay, Governeur Morris, R. R. Livingston, Alexander Hamilton, De Witt Clinton, Bishop Onderdonk, and Charles Anthon. Yet, "old as it is, and long and honorable as is the list of alumni," it is stated to be a remarkable fact that "few people in New York are aware of anything in regard to the college, except perhaps its continued existence," and this ignorance and indifference are due to the fact that Columbia College exists as only one of the institutions of a great commercial city, a city without homogenity and almost indeed without local pride or if we may use the term, local esprit de corps. The newspapers of the city have been in the habit of giving it merely the briefest mention, and then only when reporting the fact of a recurrence of its "annual festivities."

So that the University is not a solitary case. In some respects it has been more favored that Columbia College. For some years past it has had frequent and favorable notices in the prominent papers of our city, and its commencements now attract full houses of our best and most intelligent people.

There are two more facts concerning the schools in New England, which are deserving of mention. The very large and handsome building for the High School in Portland, erected just before the war, would now cost at least $125,000. The school is in every respect worthy the building, and is an honor to the city. In it all the citizens of all classes take a deep interest. At the recent examination and exhibition, the city hall, one of the finest edifices of the kind in our country, capable of holding three thousand persons, was filled day and evening with ladies and gentlemen, the most intelligent and wealthy in the city, to listen to the performances. The value of such interest, so manifested, to the schools cannot be estimated. We should not expect to see a want of interest in study in the students there, and there is none. Every one of the many who were examined from this school to enter the different colleges, was admitted without conditions. Both sexes are ambitious, and are distinguished for their high order of scholarship. The time, on the part of parents and citizens, thus given to the schools is worth more to the youth than thousands of gold and silver—it cannot be estimated.

In Boston recently nearly one thousand of the highest scholars in rank, from the different schools in the city, received each a beautiful bouquet from the hand of the Mayor in Music Hall. Speeches were made by distinguished gentlemen and music was given. How beautiful, that these flowers should receive flowers!

S.

Geary's Republican Claims.

Because he has been a faithful, efficient and honest Chief Magistrate.

Because he is the nominee and representative of a party that stood by the country in the hour of danger, and that stands by the principles of justice and freedom, upon which our Government is based.

Because he has been tried and not found wanting, neither in his devotion to the principles of true Republicanism, nor in his integrity in adhering to the strict line of principle in all his official acts.

Because he is a man whose private character is unblemished, and whose habits are such as to meet the approval of all good citizens.

Because Pennsylvania owes it to her honor and fair name not to permit a brave and gallant soldier, who drew his sword for her safety in the hour of her deadly peril, and who has served her faithfully in time of peace, to be defeated by one who sympathised with her enemies when the dark cloud of battle lowered, and the fierce conflict for national existence surged around her.

Because a just regard for the memory of the martyred dead, who fell in the heroic struggle for national existence, forbids the State to place in high official position those who sympathized with their enemies.

Because the triumph of the Democratic candidates in this State would be the triumph of the principles of Free Trade, and a deadly blow at the policy of Protection to American Industry—a policy to which the hardy sons of the Old Keystone have always been devoted.

Because the triumphant re-election of Governor Geary would rejoice the hearts of the true friends of the nation everywhere, while his defeat would bring joy into the camp of the enemies.

LITTLE BROWN HANDS.

They drive home the cows from the pasture,
Up and through the long shady lane,
Where the quails whistle loud in the wheat fields
That are yellow with the ripening grain.
They find in the thick, waving grasses,
Where the scarlet-lipped strawberry grows,
They gather the earliest snowdrops,
And the first crimson blood of the rose.

They toss the new hay in the meadow,
They gather the elder bloom white;
They find where the dusky grapes purple
In the soft-tinted October light.
They know where the apples hang ripest,
And are sweeter than Italy wines;
They know where the fruit hangs the thickest
On the long, thorny blackberry vines.

They gather the delicate seaweeds,
And build tiny castles in the sand;
They pick up the beautiful sea shells—
Fairy barks that have drifted to land.
They wade from the tall, rocking-tree tops
Where the oriole's hammock hung swings,
At night time are folded in slumber
By a song that a fond mother sings.

Those who toil bravely are strongest,
The humble and poor become great;
And from these brown-handed children
Shall grow mighty rulers of State.
The pen of the author and statesman—
The noble and wise of the land—
The sword and the chisel and palette
Shall be held in the little brown hand.

PENNSYLVANIA.

WEST CHESTER is annoyed by false alarms of fire.

LEWISTOWN had a mad dog last week, but he was killed.

SOMEBODY says, "to tell the truth, Pershing ought to have one 1 more."

CHIEF JUSTICE THOMPSON and Senator Cameron are among the guests at Bedford Springs.

A GREENSBURG boy shot and captured alive a fine brown eagle the other day. It measured six feet eight inches from tip to tip.

MASKED highway robbers infest the central and southern parts of the State. Claude Duval and his friends seem to have come to life again.

THE publishers of the huge Miners' Journal, of Pottsville, propose to issue a daily paper soon. Pottsville ought to be able to support one.

ON SATURDAY night week some inhuman wretch cut off the tongue of a mule, belonging to Henry Esterly, at Birdsboro, Berks county. The animal has since died.

THE United States District Court at Erie is holding night sessions, now, in order, if possible, to get through all the business before the Court during this term.

JAMES S. PATTON, aged eight years, son of William Patton, Esq., of Spruce Hill, Juniata county, fell from a decayed limb of a tree, on the 17th inst., and was instantly killed.

ON Friday morning last, a little daughter of Mr. Levi Hoch, residing five miles east of this place, accidentally, while at play, tipped from a board, and, unseen by anyone, fell into a cistern. The child was about three years old.—Shippensburg Sentinel.

THE Butler American says: Rev. John Lefever, of Jefferson township, this county, when cutting his grain this year, found a bunch of rye that sprang from one grain, which contained twenty-seven stalks, from which fifteen hundred and seventy-two grains were taken.

RATTLESNAKES are pleasant companions, perhaps, but sometimes they become too familiar and are killed. A fine one, four feet and a half long, twelve inches in circumference and bearing eleven rattles on his tail, was killed beneath the kitchen steps of a house in Fulton county recently.

THE Armstrong Republican says: The barn of Mr. Boyd, of Allegheny township, this county, was struck by lightning on Sunday night last, and totally destroyed. The barn was a new one, being one of the best in the neighborhood, and was filled with grain and hay. The loss is a severe one and falls heavily upon Mr. Boyd.

HUNTINGDON has bold burglars. Last week one of them entered the house of Mr. A. H. Hight and stole a watch, a pair of boots and $50 in money, after which he left, leaving a large butcher knife at the head of Mr. Hight's bed, to show probably what would have been done if Mr. H. had been unfortunate enough to wake up.

THE Chambersburg Public Opinion says a party of Chicago, Pittsburgh and Orrstown sportsmen spent one day last week fishing for trout in the stream above Roxbury. They succeeded in hooking ninety-four of these delicate beauties, although the day was not at all a promising one for the business. They hope to return soon and be more successful.

SOMETIME ago Thos. A. Beales, John B. Campbell and James A. McConnell were arrested in Altoona, on a charge of being the incendiaries who have destroyed so much property in that little city. On Tuesday the case came up before the court, and a nolle prosequi was entered in the cases of McConnell and Campbell, who were accordingly discharged, and on Wednesday the case of Beales was still on trial.

A SERIOUS accident occurred at Heffner's ore mines, in Richmond township, Berks county, on Monday of last week. An ascending bucket became loosened when near the surface, and was precipitated one hundred and eight feet on the workmen below, striking Mr. Benjamin Heffner on the head, producing a terrible laceration of the scalp, and, as it is thought, producing a serious injury of the skull. A chisel which he was holding at the time was driven through his wrist. Mr. Israel Fox also had his left arm broken twice.

THE Hanover Citizen says: We are reliably informed of rather a singular affair which occurred last week on the premises of Mr. Carbaugh, in Union township, Adams county. For some time past a cow belonging to Mr. Carbaugh has been pasturing in a field in which there is considerable underbrush, and for a number of weeks it became evident that the cow had been milked from two of the small teats, which only at times give milk. This could not be accounted for until last week, when a large black snake was found sucking the cow. It was killed and was perfectly bloated with milk.

THE Media American of Wednesday last says: Catharine Stewart, aged about forty-five years, who resided in a frame house above Leiperville, near Deshong's quarry, was killed on Friday afternoon last. Feeling unwell, she had gone up stairs to lie down upon the bed, and while there a blast was made in the quarry named, and one of the stones, about twenty-five pounds in weight, descended through the roof and struck her on the left breast. She was instantly killed, the force of the stone also breaking the sacking bottom of the bed. Coroner Rigby held an inquest, and a verdict of death by accident was rendered.

OHIO.

A SEVENTY thousand dollar Court House is being built in Gearega county.

A LAND-SLIDE occurred at Mansfield on Wednesday, and two Germans engaged in leveling a hill were severely, perhaps fatally, injured.

THE Carroll Free Press says: From our observation of the wheat in this part of the country we conclude it is somewhat injured by the rust, yet there will be a fair yield and of a quality much better than we have had for some time.

THE Belmont Chronicle says: "During the storm of Friday night last, the M. E. Church at Loydsville, in this county was struck by lightning. The cupola was shattered to pieces, the walls pretty badly cracked, and the door badly broken up.

THE Mahoning Herald says: On Tuesday or Wednesday of last week, Mr. Isaac Shaw, of Hanover, the well known hack driver between that place and New Lisbon, undertook to hive a swarm of bees, when they became enraged and stung him so badly about the head and neck and hands that he in a short time afterwards died.

THE wheat in Coshocton county, generally, is all in shock. The yield as far as we can learn is splendid. Farmers are quite jubilant over their success in wheat raising this year. Oats looks well and will produce more than an average crop. Corn is very backward. Owing to our unfavorable spring much re-planting had to be done. If we have a late fall, a fair crop may be gathered. The fruit crop, in apples and peaches, will be small, and of an inferior quality.—Coshocton Age.

Trials of a Country Clergyman.

A young parson thus feelingly describes his bachelor experience in the first village in which he settled after entering the ministry: Old ladies gave me tracts and tormented me in every possible way. One gave me cough lozenges because a fly got down my throat in church; another sent me her late husband's goloshes to wear when I went out on wet evenings, (the late husband's feet were about five inches long.) A third sent a wonderful kind of India rubber bag, which she said could be applied wherever a chill was felt. Not till my sister came to stay with me did I know that hot water ought to be put into the creature before using; I had thought it a sort of mat to lay over my feet, and very useless of its kind. A Miss Thompson was the most disagreeable of the old maids. She actually one day ran her fingers underneath my collar to see if I wore flannel. During the year I was at Littleback. I had thirteen pairs of slippers, twenty-five sermon cases and three smoking caps worked for me. One young lady embroidered my initials on a handkerchief in shiny looking black thread. My sister says that it was done in hair; and perhaps that accounts for Miss Rudge being so offended when I said I thought Lester's red marking cotton as good as any other. Three young ladies declared that I had trifled with their affections; two, on the contrary, affirmed that they had rejected me; while the village school mistress assured the rector that I had tried to press her hand. I certainly never had such hard work as while at Littleback. I played at least three hundred games of croquet went to an archery meeting every week, and at any spare moment I was liable to be sent for by Miss Anna Phelps to practice an Italian duet. I bore my trials with christian fortitude, till one morning the rector sent for me and said that my conduct disgraced my profession. I took the hint, and at the end of one year and three months my career at Littleback was over. The young ladies cried when I went; they said I was "such a darling." Now, I ask my impartial reader whether it was not hard that I should be blamed for the ladies of Littleback? My life is blighted, and all that is left of me is thirteen pairs of slippers, twenty-five sermon cases, three smoking caps, one handkerchief marked "T. G.," and a bad character from my late employer.

The Reformed Mennonites.

The following article, which we copy from the Mt. Joy Herald, gives a rather fairer account of the characteristics of new or Reformed Mennonites than is usually found in the newspapers: The followers of John Herr, who was a native of West Lampter towtship, Lancester county, Pa., are generally known by the name of New Mennonites, but by many they are called Herrites; and in Franklin county, Pa., where their first leader was a Rev. Frantz. they are usually denominated the Frantzites. They are most numerous in this and Franklin counties of this State, and Canada, but they are also found in nearly all the Southeastern counties of Pennsylvania, and some of the Western States. Their mode of worship does not differ very much from the Old Mennonite Church. They hold very strictly to the non-resistance doctrine; not going to war nor suing at the law; nor will they hold any office under the Government; or vote for candidates for any civil office. They are industrious, frugal, and hence generally prosperous. In their dress they are neat; the style resembling that of the Quakers, but is much more uniform. They are not permitted to marry any but their own members. They are close communionists, and the members of each sex greet each other with a kiss when they meet or separate, except neighbors during ordinary business affairs. The great peculiarity of the denomination is their strict exclusiveness, refraining from hearing any but their own members preach or pray on any occasion, even at the funeral of a near relative. If they attend funerals, the divine service of which is conducted by ministers of other denominations, they absent themselves during the service. As a reason for this exclusiveness, they say that the worship of all others is Babel—confusion, and therefore not acceptable with the Lord. They are neighborly, sociable, and very good citizens.

PERHAPS the most singular case of longevity among the birds in the Zoological Gardens of London, is that of the wonderful wingless birds of New Zealand, the kiwi-kiwi, or apteryx. The old bird, a female, has been living in the gardens since 1851. Every year since she has laid her single enormous egg, which weighs, when fresh, fourteen ounces, and measures four and three-fourths inches in length, and is nine and three-fourth inches in the smallest circumference, being the largest egg, in proportion to the size of the animal producing it, laid by any bird. The kiwi, we may remark, is about the size of a large hen, and the egg is double the weight of that of a swan. After thirteen years of single blessedness she has been provided with a mate, but as yet has reared no progeny.

Anthony Trollope's View of American Girls.

In America a girl may form a friendly intimacy with any young man she fancies, and though she may not be free from little jests and good-humored joking, there is no injury to her from such intimacy. It is her acknowledged right to enjoy herself after that fashion, and to have what she calls a good time with young men. A dozen such intimacies do not stand in her way when there comes some real adorer who means to marry her and is able to do so. She rides with these friends, walks with them, and corresponds with them. She goes out to balls and picnics with them, and afterward lets herself in with a latch-key, while her papa and mamma are abed and and asleep, with perfect security. If there be much to be said against the practice, there is also something to be said for it. Girls on the continent of Europe, on the other hand, do not dream of making friendship with any man. A cousin with them is as much out of the question as the most perfect stranger. In strict families a girl is hardly allowed to go out with her brother, and I have heard of mothers who thought it indiscreet that a father should be seen alone with his daughter at a theatre. All friendships between the sexes must, under such a social code, be looked forward to as post-nuptial joys. Here in England there is a something betwixt the two. The intercourse between young men and girls is free enough to enable the latter to feel how pleasant it is to be able to forget, for a while, conventional restraints, and to acknowledge how joyous a thing it is to indulge in social intercouse in which the simple delight of equal mind meeting equal mind in equal talk is just enhanced by the unconscious remembrance that boys and girls, when they meet together, may learn to love. There is nothing more sweet in youth than this, nothing more natural, nothing more fitting—nothing, indeed, more essentially necessary for God's purposes with his creatures. Nevertheless, here with us, that is the restriction, and it is seldom that a girl can allow herself the full flow of friendship with a man not old enough to be her father, unless he is her lover as well as her friend.—From "The Vicar of Bullhampton."

A Good Word for the Mosquito.

As so many readers will find themselves in close contact with this insect presently, we quote what the Entomologist says concerning him, for their edification:

The eggs of the mosquito are laid in a bowl-shaped mass upon the surface of stagnant water by the mother fly. After hatching out they finally become the wiggletails or wiggling worms that may be seen in the summer in any barrel of water that is exposed to the atmosphere for any length of time. Finally the "wiggletails" come to the surface, and the full fledged mosquito bursts out of them, at first with very short limp wings, which in a short time grow both in length and stiffness. The sexes then couple, and the above process is repeated again, probably a dozen times in the course of one season. It is a curious fact that the male mosquito, which may be known by its feathered anteae, is physically incapable of sucking blood.

The musquito is not an unmitigated pest. Although in the winged state the female sucks our blood and disturbs our rest, in the larva state the insect is decidedly beneficial by purifying stagnant water that would otherwise breed malarial diseases. Linnæus long ago showed that if you place two barrels of stagnant water side by side, neither of them containing any "wiggletails," or other living animals, and cover one with gauze, leaving the other one uncovered, so that it will soon become full of "wiggletails," hatched out from the eggs deposited by the female mosquito, then the covered barrel will, in a few weeks, become very offensive, and the uncovered barrel will emit no impure and unsavory vapors.

The Climate of California.

Even in hot interior towns like Sacramento, the air is exceedingly bracing. The midday sun scalds and broils, but in the shade one never finds the atmosphere close and stifling; and at night, in the phraseology of the country, "he always needs to sleep under a blanket." Notwithstanding the intense heats no case of sun-stroke has ever been known in California, and mad dogs are unheard of. The climate of this city—and in less degree that of the interior—braces up the nerves and excites the brain like champagne. It is a potent stimulant, quickening all human machinery, mental and physical; kindling unwonted activity, restlessness, and keenness of perception, and causing, more than any other influence the high-pressure life of California. I doubt if there is any one so sluggish of blood that he could stay for a week in San Francisco without finding his old self strangely vitalized and intensified. Observing writers, too, begin to notice the change in physique—the universal tendency to ruddiness, corpulence, and a certain English cast of countenance. What have the Yankees, who have lived here ten or fifteen years, done with their thin faces and narrow chests? Do they mean tamely to yield up their birth-right, and suffer a sea change into something new and strange—beef-eating Englishmen, for example? Already the pioneer is a modified man; the Californian of the second generation will be a new man.

Cat-Egorical.

An unfledged poet, whose talent only needs to be known to be appreciated, has been favored with a feline serenade, and thus gives vent to his feelings on the occasion:

"If a cat doth meet a cat, upon the garden wall, and if a cat doth greet a cat, oh! need they both to squall? Every Tommy has his Tabby, waiting on the wall, and yet she welcomes his approach with one unearthly yawl. If a kit doth wish to court a rock upon the wall, why don't he sit and sweetly smile, and not stand up and bawl; and lift his precious back up high, and show his teeth and moan, as if 'twere colic more than love, that made the feline groan. Among the train there is a swain; his voice is known full well; but what's his name, or where's his 'hame,' the deuce alone can tell. He is sweet upon the other sex; and so. with groans and horrid threats, he rends the evening air, and makes these midnight 'rendezvous' impossible to bear."

DR. WHITTIER
CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases, Syphilis in all its forms, urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produce some of the following effects, as blotches, weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future evil, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovarian pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that special than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelope. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten airy rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while others daily personal attention is required. For the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who has failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A.M. to 8 P.M. Sundays 12 M. to 2 P. M. Office No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, July 29, 1869.

The oil market continues quiet and rather dull, with a light volume of business in the aggregate, and the trade generally is not in as prosperous a condition as could be desired. The inequality in the prices of crude and refined is having a very bad influence on the trade, as it is restricting business and retarding operations; and until this obstacle is removed by some means or other, no immediate improvement can reasonably be expected. Until crude recedes or refined advances, refiners will have their hands tied, as they cannot go ahead in the present aspect of affairs without sustaing a loss, and this they will not do, if there is any way to avoid it. As a matter of course, they will be loth to stop their works, but if there is no other recourse, this they will have to do, as it is not likely that they will go ahead, with a positive loss staring them in the face. At present price of crude it will cost at least 32@32½, some say to 33, to deliver the refined in Philadelphia, while, today spot refined sold at 31¾. Here is a loss of at least a cent per gallon, instead of a profit of two cents, which is little, enough, when the risk attending the business is taken into consideration. It is some consolation, however, to know that Pittsburgh is not alone in this respect, as Cleveland and other points, where the refining business is carried on extensively, are in pretty much the same situation.

CRUDE.

But a single sale reported, 1,000 bbls spot at 14¾; quotations may be fairly given at 14¾ bid, and 15 asked. Oil City telegrams quote at $5,90@6 per bbl. In the present aspect of affairs Pittsburgh refiners do not was much oil at these prices.

REFINED

Sale 500 and 1,000 July, at 31¾; 1,000 each September to December, at 33; August, to December; 32½@32¾; August, last half, 32 bid; September 33; buyer all year, at 34@34½. Market quiet and a little weak.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was rising slowly yesterday with five feet six inches in the channel by the Monongahela marks. Weather yesterday was clear and pleasant—mercury at 4 P. M. 78 in shade.

The Kenton from Portsmouth is the only arrival we have to report. She returns again to-day, as usual.

The R. C. Gray departed for Cincinnati with a good trip, and she will doubtless pick something below. Pilots—James Shouse and Wm. Hall.

Business is almost suspended, not a single boat in port doing anything, aside from the packets. In fact, the Camelia is the only transient steamer we have, and she has been, and is still laid up.

The Messenger is among the first boats due.

—The John Lumsden is at Paducah, laid up.

—The Mississippi River at Louisiana, Pike County, extends from bluff to bluff, and is six miles wide.

—The Messenger left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Tuesday. Pilots, Capt. Jease Dean and Wm. Goslee.

—The following boats are being dismantled at Louisville and New Albany: Grey Eagle, Vicksburg, Judge Fletcher, Lizzie Tate and New Era.

—The Lorena received 50 tons at Cincinnati, and departed for St. Louis on Tuesday with 650 tons on boat, and two barges. Pilots, Shinkle and Boyer.

—The numerous friends of Capt. W. M. List will be pleased to learn that he has so far recovered from his recent mishap as to be enabled to resume his duties in the office of the Wheeling and Cincinnati packet, R. R. Hudson.

—Captain Peter Conrad has contracted at Metropolis for three model barges, to be used in the St. Louis and Tennessee River trade. They are to be 155 feet in length, 27 feet width of beam, and—feet depth of hold, and are to be completed in sixty days.

—The Nashville Union, of Monday says: The Burksville, Captain Lovell's new boat, will leave New Albany for this point on Saturday next. She was built for a Cumberland River packet, and during the winter seasons will run in the upper trade, and between this and Cairo in low water season.

—Local Inspector C. W. Fisher, of Cincinnati, on Monday detained 20 carboys of oil of vitroil, shipped on the W. F. Curtis for Marietta, because they were not inclosed in the metalic cases, as required by law. The packages were marked "iron clad" on the bill of lading, which was not true.

—The Northern Transportation Company have contracted with Messrs, Wilson & Dunlevy, of Wheeling, for a new boat. Her dimensions will be; length, 250 feet; breadth of beam, 36 feet; depth of hold, 6 feet. The barges building by the same firm for the Northern Company are nearly ready to launch.

PETROLEUM at Antwerp, 50f.

U. S. BONDS at Frankfort, 87⅛@88.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 136½@136⅝.

THE old Atlantic Cable of 1866 reveals a serious fault at a point one hundred and thirty miles distant from the Irish coast.

THE Ohio Republicans open their political canvass on the 12th of August, with speeches from Governor HAYES and Senator MORTON, at Wilmington.

CONVICTED of a deliberate mis-statement in the Williams matter, the Pittsburgh Post is mute! The falsehood is neither defended, excused nor confessed.

ASA PACKER bolted STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS in favor of BRECKINRIDGE, the Southern fire eater, who developed into the wickedest among rebels. Will the old Douglas Democrats swallow PACKER now?

IF THE opposition insist upon their objections to Executive pardons, it will be bad for the Philadelphia Democracy, half of whom will be the "hopeless victims of Radical misrule" under prison-bars within a twelve-month.

THE coal-miners of western Pennsylvania are invited, by the Democracy, to vote for a man who has made millions of money by speculating in their toil and sweat. Not much PACKER for them!

WE ARE quite sure that if lying deliberately against a fellow-citizen were an indictable offense, and punished as such, Gov. GEARY would not pardon the guilty journalist, even upon the strongest Democratic recommendations.

BRICK POMEROY'S candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania secured his nomination at the last moment by a rush, in his favor, of a mob of blackguards from Philadelphia, who swore that they could get no pardons from his competitor.

VAUX and his musketeers propose to fight for the success of the Packer party. They never did fight for their country, and never will, but for a candidate of so much land cash, they are willing to die in the last ditch—the right place to look for their remains in October.

THE Allegheny Democracy propose to nominate a ticket for the local offices. They don't take kindly the suggestion in their organ, to let the election go by default. In that, it missed its figure as usual. Are the "blundering old fossils" or the "clear-headed, youthful Democracy" to rule the coming hour?"

THE last Annual Message of Governor Geary occupies twenty-six pages with the "Pardon Report." In every case, the names of citizens signing the recommendations, and the main reasons assigned therein, are fully stated. This official document is before the people and will effectually refute the slanders of the opposition.

ELECTIONS will be held on Monday next in Kentucky and Alabama. A State Treasurer and Legislature are to be chosen in the former, and members of Congress in the latter. On the succeeding Thursday, August 5th, Tennessee elects her Legislature and State officers. Vermont follows, September 7th, and Maine September 10th, with State tickets only in each.

DURING the quarter ending April 1st last 36,277 immigrants arrived by ocean in this country, 23,738 males, 12,539 females. Of these 7,073 were children; 1,426 came from China and Japan; 13,096 from Great Britain and Ireland; 11,963 from Germany, Austria and Prussia; 1,564 from France, Spain and Italy. Of these 2,767 were farmers; 9,614 laborers; 1,842 mechanics; 1,176 merchants; 760 miners; 328 professionals; 660 servants.

THE TOTAL WOOL PRODUCTION of the world is 1,772,300,000 pounds annually. Of this Great Britain and Ireland produce 260,000,000 pounds; France, 126,000,000 pounds; Germany, Netherlands and Belgium, 190,500,000 pounds; European Russia, 125,500,000 pounds; Persia, 50,000,000 pounds, and the rest of Asia, 370,000,000 pounds; Australia, 114,000,000 pounds; South America, 110,000,000 pounds; Canada, 12,000,000 pounds; United States, 100,000,000 pounds.

JUDGE DENT, the self-nominated candidate of the Mississippi Conservatives, publishes a letter in the press of that State, planting himself upon the platform occupied by Gov. WALKER, of Virginia. The letter is a very good one—which makes it the more surprising that every rebel in Mississippi supports him. As he is not legally a resident of the State, there is much curiosity to know how he will qualify for the office, if he should chance to be elected. It is probable that the people will themselves take the benefit of the doubt.

WM. H. SYLVIS, Esq., President of the National Labor Union, and a man of much force of character and ability, died at his residence in Philadelphia on Tuesday last. He was a consistent and earnest friend of the laboring element of the country, and his freedom from demagogism in the championship of the cause of the industrial masses won for him their fullest confidence, and the esteem and respect of even those against whom he contended, as honesty of purpose and sincerity of intention were conspicuous in all his public and private acts.

BASE is the ingratitude of the opposition press! They are now abusing Governor GEARY for pardoning some convicts, all of whom were probably Democrats, but for all of whom there were ample recommendations to his clemency. "We won't have Cass," swore the McMullin mob at Harrisburg, "we must have a Governor who will let our boys run, when they are nabbed." They went for PACKER, to a man! If Governor GEARY has habitually misused his prerogative as they charge, every thief and scoundrel in the Democratic party would be his friend.

THE PENNSYLVANIA CANVASS is watched with much interest by those living outside the State. It is an important problem whether free and independent citizens will be lured with gold into elevating a millionaire to office, or whether, adhering to principle, they will continue to recognize true merit, worth, statesmanship and patriotism, though all are found combined in a moneyless man. PACKER represents twenty millions or more in very hard cash, but never was conspicuous for any of the creditable attributes of character belonging to GEARY, the soldier hero and people's candidate. Will money tell when used in paving the way to a seat of honor, is a question which will meet with a very decided negative answer from the hard fisted yeomanry of this Commonwealth.

THE outlook is good in Pennsylvania for the Republican party. The opposition vainly endeavor to fasten one word of reproach with truth on either of our candidates. The lives of both have been free from any act of private or public character which can now be cited against them. That they will carry the State by a large majority appears more certain with each returning day as everywhere the camp-fire is brightly burning and the Republican hosts are cementing together for the conflict. Never before has victory seemed so certain, and come it will so sure as men were ever true to correct and patriotic principles. The question is not shall our candidates be elected, but how large a majority will they be awarded? Allegheny county is expected to contribute her large share in framing the figures, and she will do it as she has done before.

NEARLY a month ago the GAZETTE was notified by the several departments of the Government, including the War Department, that it was elected to do the public printing. By an announcement in the Dispatch yesterday, we learn that it, too, has received notification that henceforth it is to be recognized as one of the official papers of the War Department. We are glad that our neighbor shares with us the confidence and patronage of the party in power. During the administration of Mr. JOHNSON, who history will say acted as President for awhile through the singular kindness of an inscrutable Providence in elevating him to a position he could not fitly occupy, the GAZETTE was deprived of patronage of this sort, but it lived to secure it from vastly better hands, and will never regret the pecuniary loss entailed by the narrow-minded proscription of the by no means lamented Mr. J.

ONCE more comes A. H. STEPHENS, printing a letter in which he urges that "the only proper course is for the General Assembly of Georgia to conform to the principles of our Supreme Court decision on the eligibility question, in all future issues." Submitting to a judicial authority of their own, the people of Georgia will have a better opportunity to escape, with a show of dignity and consistency, from the dilemma in which they have involved themselves. In the strictness of logic, the same decision would require that all the legislative proceedings which were the acts of the intruders illegally foisted into the Legislature, usurping the places of colored members duly elected and qualified, should be considered as undone. But in view of the general confusion to result from this rigid interpretation, it is believed that the Radical party of the State would accept a compromise which should protect them against such outrages in future.

A LEADING FRIEND OF PACKER and PERSHING, in Philadelphia, threatens the people of this Commonwealth with an armed rebellion. This is not a mere empty menace. Our people should understand what it means. An existing statute of Pennsylvania, legally enacted and judicially upheld, provides needful safeguards for a pure suffrage. Upheld and faithfully enforced, that statute precludes any possibility of success for the Democratic ticket. Therefore, they are determined to break it down, and nullify it at all hazards, at least in Philadelphia, which has always been their favorite field, and often for successful outrages on the ballot-boxes. The Courts refuse to aid their hostile designs. They rely next upon the local officers to whose partisan prejudices they can appeal. If this resort fails, then for the muskets of Mr. Vaux and his friends. That is the programme for Philadelphia, and perhaps for other districts of the Commonwealth. Are the people ready for it?

A MONUMENTAL SUGGESTION.

Munich has been called the City of Statues, because of the number of monuments of that sort which have been erected in its streets and squares, to commemorate great men and deeds. In that beautiful city there is scarcely a street that has not at least one bronze monument to adorn it; but the most remarkable thing of this sort in the whole capital is probably the renowned Rhumshalle, or temple of fame, which is a beautiful Grecian temple, built of white marble, around the colossal figure of Bavaria, and containing the busts of all Bavarians whose self-earned renown has rendered them worthy of being thus honored. In this country we have nothing of this sort; indeed, in the whole land, there are probably not so many monumental statues, altogether, as there are in this single German city. Now it has been suggested to us that it would be a beautiful thing if one portion of the Allegheny Commons—say the East, the North or the West—were set apart as a memorial to renowned Pennsylvanians, to be adorned, from time to time, with busts or statues of the famous citizens of our grand old State. The idea is a beautiful one. The plan seems practicable enough, and, if it should be undertaken, would almost undoubtedly succeed. The only thing to be guarded against would be the erection of such memorials to persons whose fame would not warrant such an honor, but whose friends might be allowed to confer it on them through a natural desire, on the part of the people having the matter in charge, to make it a speedy success. In such matters haste is by no means a virtue.

Suppose the North Commons were taken for this purpose, and adorned at once with statues or busts of such men as Penn, Franklin, Robert Morris, Charles Thompson and General Meade—how much would be thus added to the beauty and elegance of the park at once, while room enough would remain for others who might be deliberately chosen from the list of our greatest men of the past, or who may hereafter reach the loftier elevation of fame.

ELECTIONEERING WITH THE MUSKET.

The Packer Democracy had better enlist FRANK BLAIR for this year's canvass. He is out of employment at present, and finds little pleasure in loitering about Long Branch. In fact, he is entirely out of his element at any watering-place. The PACKER men should employ him at once. At any rate, they should not otherwise steal his thunder. The Presidential canvass of last year was made upon his Brodhead letter, with its threats of military intervention in behalf of the "oppressed" white Democracy of the South. The results in November ought to have given to his party a contemptuous opinion of that electioneering document. Yet here comes one Richard Vaux, a venerable leader of the Pennsylvania Democracy, and repeats the Brodhead letter in his speech at a convention of his party in Philadelphia on the 26th, declaring that the "first cardinal rule of that party shall be that none but white citizens shall vote at our Democratic elections." Mr. PACKER'S friend adds:

It has come to that. It has come to this—that we have now, for the first time, as Democrats, to put into our rules that our fathers put into our Constitution. (Applause.) And hear this—remember it, fellow-Democrats—that you will have to take your muskets, and yet defend the principle, if I am not greatly mistaken. (Applause.) We have to put into the rules, what our fathers put into the Constitution, this great right of self-government—this principle of a representative government for the white race and not for any other race on the globe.—which we copy from the Argus, a Democratic print.

If we could only believe this menace to be vox et praterea nihil, the good people of our Commonwealth would breathe the easier. But we fear it is too full of sad presage for our country's future peace. Since the pugnacious Vaux thus follows the lead of the pugnacious Blair, we cannot be blind to the fact that the opposition must be spoiling for a fight. They had a rare opportunity for hostilities from 1861 to 1865, but improved it nowhere north of the Maryland line. During that unpleasantness, the Packer party preserved a strictly pacific neutrality. They wouldn't help an abolitionized Union, and they didn't dare to give open aid to their Southern friends. But they have talked no end of fight since a peace was conquered. And there is no way of curing them of their belligerent propensities except to quit holding these valiant Captain Bobadils.

And that is modern Democracy! To talk of "trampling the laws in the dust under the heels of an army" led by Blair, or of taking up their muskets with Mr. Packer's Philadelphia friend, but when it comes to the pinch, they dare nothing except to waylay and assassinate good citizens by the road-side, as all over the South, or to set on a mob to beat out the brains of some poor Irishman who exposes such electioneering devices as the coffee-pot villainies in our own county of Clearfield. When it comes to that kind of fighting, your modern Democratic politician seems to be in his element—and only then.

PARK OR NO PARK?

The masses who go to make up the population of Pittsburgh are essentially and peculiarly different from those that inhabit other cities. PARTON, we believe it was, truthfully observed that there were but three cities in America unlike each other and like no other in common—Pittsburgh, Montreal and New Orleans. Individually and collectively we are a closely organized community of workers. The drone has no congenial or welcome place in our busy hive of industry, where millionaires and day laborers work together, vieing with each other in their habits of industry and continuity of purpose to accomplish. Industry is the universal fault of our people. No where else is more faithfully observed the divine command to earn a living by the sweat of the brow. We toil one and all, days in and years out, never stopping to rest or to recuperate, or to rejoice in the pleasures of relaxation and enjoyment. Industry is a virtue in most cases, but when carried to the extreme it loses a portion of its noble essence and becomes a distinguishing fault and closely approaches crime. All men are consumers and should correspondingly become producers and contributors; but there is no wisdom in that perpetual labor which rapidly exhausts life and compels the willing laborer to pay more than his share in the common account.

What is needed is that our people have more rest, more rational enjoyment, more pure air, more escape from the heat and dust and smoke of the city, into the life-invigorating country. Above any and all cities of the country, we need a common breathing spot for the people, and yet not an inch of green covered sward, hardly a friendly tree, are available to the people as a resting place from toil. The noise of ceaseless working machinery, of rumbling wagons over the bouldered streets, of the active working city, can in no direction be escaped except by trespassing on the grounds of whimsical owners who care not to supply the children of a rich and opulent municipality a free park at private expense. Years ago, had our forefathers been gifted with knowledge of what our city would be at this date, public parks, charmingly adorned by nature, might have been provided at little or no expense to taxpayers. They, with their times and opportunities, have passed, and few among us but marvel at their want of foresight and enterprise. In charging them, however, with not having fully discharged their duty to posterity, we must take into consideration the fact that we are but little more progressive. Even within the past decade of years golden opportunities for the selection of a suitable site for a public park have been permitted to escape unimproved, and even at this time history threatens repetition, unless the people become thoroughly educated to the belief that such breathing places are absolutely essential and necessary to the health and welfare of themselves.

The public spirit and enterprise of the citizens of our sister city, Allegheny, in making the improvements now going forward on the Commons, whereby they are being converted into a series of parks, which, when completed, will vie with any others in the country in point of vernal charms and artistic beauties, might serve as incentives to our own citizens to do for Pittsburgh a similarly wise and gracious thing. At the last meeting of City Councils the smouldering project for the purchase of grounds suitable for a park was revived and the matter fixed in such shape as to throw it to a general city election for Park or against Park, which will be held on the 31st proximo. How will the matter be determined? Affirmatively or negatively? If the right spirit prevails the people will vote for the measure; if they appreciate the great importance of the possession in which new happiness will be born to the people, they will vote for it; but if they are willing to dispense with luxury, and creep in the old way for scores of years to come, with nothing to recommend the city or make it attractive but its soot, filth and smoke, they will permit their voices to go out in the negative. Let it be understood that the projectors of the enterprise, gentlemen whose honesty, integrity and ability as financiers, are above question, promise that if the people authorize them to act they will furnish five hundred acres of charming and picturesque land, free of cost, to the city for the park. This is no illusory pledge, thrown out to secure votes. The thing can be done, and we are assured and confident will be done if the requisite authority to do so be granted. Will the people vote to refuse a free gift of real estate, worth a million of dollars or more, because, forsooth, taxes for its improvement will thereafter follow? We think not. We have too much confidence in their judgment and liberality to entertain the idea that they will permit a golden opportunity, such as can never again occur, for the securement of a grand and inviting country spot, where rich and poor, high and low can repair for rest and relaxation from the toils of the workshops, counting room and business office.

SALARIES OF FEMALE TEACHERS.

EDITORS GAZETTE: In looking over Prof. Luckey's excellent report for our city schools, published a few days since, I was much pleased to see the following: "Our people have been led to consider the inequality of salaries given to male and female teachers for the same work, and the Central Board of Education have thrown open the doors to all positions within their gift, and have left our female teachers free to aspire to the highest positions of profit and trust in the public schools of our city." This was good news and rejoiced the hearts of those who desire to see justice done. But after learning the facts in the case of a young lady of the highest ability in her profession who is "aspiring to the position of principal of one of our ward schools, it occurred to me that the Central Board had certainly left our lady teachers "free to aspire," but—aspiration being a good thing for the soul—the ward boards would take particular care that the lady teachers should have plenty of time in which to perform that excellent intellectual exercise. They will be, it is evident, in no special hurry to quench "aspiration" in any lady by giving her "the highest position of profit and trust in the public schools of our city.

And why should they, Messrs. Editors? When I have explained you will see that except for the trifling considerations of common honesty and justice there is no reason in the world why the present admirable system should not be preserved.

In the first place, however, I must be allowed to correct a slight mistake made in the report alluded to. Mr. Luckey speaks of "the inequality of salaries given to male and female teachers for the same work."

It is true that the lady who fills the second place in one of our ward schools, receives a little more than one-third of the salary paid to the gentleman who is called the Principal. But it is a fact as well known to the citizens of the several wards as to the writer of this article, that the lady instead of doing the same, does in most cases, nearly all the work. She governs the school, composed of the most advanced pupils, teaches all or nearly all of the highest classes, prepares them for the high school, and makes out all reports (no small part of her labor), except a general one to the board—the material for which is furnished the Principal by the several teachers of the school. In some cases the Principal of the school is little more than a sort of head janitor, the first assistant actually discharging what ought to be the main duties of the Principal.

Our Ward Boards, with perhaps a few exceptions, have a great deal too much acuteness and sagacity to change this position of affairs. They get the actual work done by the lady at the low salary indicated, and when visitors come to see the schools, they find an amiable, smiling gentleman whose nerves have not been injured by the drudgery of his profession ready to escort them through the building, and assume to himself the credit of the excellent order and admirable recitations which they are sure to find in almost every room.

You will be able to see that if the lady assistant should be elevated to the principalship, this worthy gentleman will be thrown out of a position which he is so admirably calculated to fill, and actually obliged to do something for a living. The school also will suffer from the want of prestige which is given by a dignified, learned-looking gentleman, whose deportment alone is worth more than the salary which he receives.

It is scarcely necessary to say that there are several of our principals who earn their salaries, and much more than they get, by faithful work; who have real ability, not only for teaching, but for properly training the young teachers in their schools. But it cannot be denied that a good many of these officials hold very comfortable sinecures, and it seems to be about time this matter was looked into. In every Board of Directors there are some intelligent men who know that this state of things is wrong, but who swayed by custom and prevailing prejudice are too timid or too careless to take any steps towards a reform. Justice will be done only when the person who does the principal's work shall receive the principal's salary, and all supernumeraries, of either sex, dismissed to earn their their daily bread honestly, or be supported out of the public funds in a manner more consistent with their utter uselessness.

THE OPHTHALMOS.—This new instrument, for taking photographic views of scenery, is attracting great attention in England. It consists of a camera, provided with mechanical contrivances for automatically uncovering and covering the lens and exposing the plate. The ophthalmos, or "eye" is attached to a small balloon, and is sent up without an operator, and at any required height, it is asserted, takes a picture of the surface of the earth beneath it, with all the bearings of the compass accurately marked Political Items.

THE RICHMOND Enquirer professes to have full returns of the members chosen to the Virginia Legislature. Its figures are thus: White Conservatives, 95; Negro Conservatives, 3. Total Conservatives 98; White Radicals, 24; Negro Radicals, 18; Total, 42. One seat contested.

BEFORE the nomination of Packer, the editor of the Selinsgrove Times, a radical Democratic paper, wrote as follows:

"This day the Democratic State convention assembles at Harrisburgh to make a nomination for Governor. Gen. Geo. W. Cass has the inside track, but a large ring of demagogues who go there uninstructed as delegates will try and cheat him out of the nomination. They are for the man, and that man may be any man who promises them the most money. These men generally favor Packer, because he is very wealthy, and they expect to make him come down with the 'dust.' It is by no means his good qualities they are after,"

We have not learned what the editor's sentiments are now. Doubtless he goes with the crowd for Packer and his 'dust.'

A NEW DILEMMA—Does Asa Packer own any United States bonds, or did he ever do so?

This is the latest dilemma of the unfortunate Democracy.

If he does or did, then he is a bloated bondholder, to borrow the elegant language of the Democratic journals.

If he does not, or never did, then he refused to aid the Government in the hour of its peril in the only way could aid it.

If his millions, like a Democrat's doubts, have always been cast against his country, they are not to his credit. If, on the other hand, his money is invested in the tax-exempted bonds of the Government, then he has been violating the first principles of the gospel of modern Democracy after Brick Pomeroy.

On which horn of the dilemma does Mr. Packer hang?

When the Democracy discover that the money-bags of Packer have failed to corrupt the majorities of Pennsylvania, the unfortunate millionaire will become an offence in their nostrils; a sort of political Asa-fœtida.

The Pottsville Miner's Journal says the Democracy of Schuylkill and Berks are grievously disappointed. They wanted Hancock, and Packer's nomination falls like a wet blanket on them. The Reading Gazette (Democrat) predicted defeat if Hancock should not be nominated. "Coming events cast their shadows before,"

The Cincinnati Enquirer, the leading Democratic organ in Ohio, does not admire the platform of the California Democracy:

We can tell these California Democrats that negro suffrage is a fixed fact, and that the Southern Democrats, under a new organization, are using it with success, and that the Chinese are coming, and that it is sheer nonsense to fight them in California with Democratic resolutions. Have these California Democrats heard of the Pacific Railroad and who built it? This California platform is the stupidest thing out since the secession ordinance of South Carolina.

ONE OF THE MOST ASTOUNDING CURES EVER PUBLISHED—ATTESTED BY OVER FIFTY WITNESSES.

The remarkable cure of Miss Fisher, of Beaver county, is one worthy of more than a passing notice, especially when so many persons are suffering not only with diseases of the eyes, and partial or total blindness, but likewise with other chronic ailments which Dr. Keyser has treated with such astounding success.

The lady concerned was doomed to perpetual blindness, which through Dr. Keyser's skill was completely removed, the truth of which has been vouched for by a sufficient number of witnesses to establish the fact beyond all cavil. The subjoined letter from the young lady's brother speaks for itself:

DR. KEYSER—This is the list of names that I have to the cure of my sister, Christiana Fisher. They were all willing to put their names down, and were very much astonished to see that you brought her sight so soon. My mother sends her thanks to you; she says "you are one of the greatest men in the world." She says if we had not come across you she believes her child would not be living at this time. We all join in sending our love and respects to you.

S. P. FISHER,
North Sewickley.

We, the undersigned know of the cure of Miss Fisher, and bear willing testimony to the fact above stated.

ROUSE THE SYSTEM.

It is a sad thing to pass through life only half alive. Yet there are thousands whose habitual condition is one of languor and debility. They complain of no specific disease; they suffer no positive pain; but they have no relish for anything which affords mental or sensuous pleasure to their more robust and energetic fellow beings.

In nine cases out of ten this state of lassitude and torpor arises from a morbid stomach. Indigestion destroys the energy of both mind and body. When the waste of nature is not supplied by a due and regular assimilation of the food, every organ is starved, every function interrupted.

Now, what does common sense suggest under these circumstances of depression? The system needs rousing and strengthening; not merely for an hour or two, to sink afterward into a more pitiable condition than ever, as it assuredly would do if an ordinary alcoholic imulant were resorted to,) but radically and permanently.

How is this desirable object to be accomplished? The answer to this question, founded on the unvarying experiences of a quarter of a century, is easily given. Infuse new vigor into the digestive organs by a course of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Do not waste time in administering temporary remedies, but make the system up by recuperating the fountain head of physical strength and energy, the great organ upon which all the other organs depend for their nurture and support.

By the time that a dozen doses of the great vegetable tonic and invigorant have been taken, the feeble frame of the dyspeptic will begin to feel its benign influence. Appetite will be created, and with appetite the capacity to digest what it craves. Perseverance until the cure is complete—until healthful blood, fit to be the material of flesh and muscle, bone and nerve and brain, flows through the channels of circulation, instead of the watery pabulum with which they have heretofore been imperfectly nourished.

Safety Fire Jacket, Car Heater and MODERATOR.

For Smoke and Hot Air Flues, dispensing with the use of stoves and fire in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached. Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket, which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended.

It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c. Wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired, I will send on application right to manufacture or use the above invention. Also Territorial rights to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges either by State or county.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, July 29, 1869.

Wall street has been speculating all day on the future policy of the Secretary of the Treasury, and some heavy operations have taken place, especially in Governments, based on the theory that gold sales and bond purchases in August will be similar to those in July.

Money easy at 6@7 per cent., with occasional exceptions at 5. Discounts in better request at 8 per cent. Sterling 9⅞@10⅛. Gold higher, closing strong at 136½@136⅝; opened at 135¾ and closed at 136⅛@136⅝. Carrying rates 4@7 per cent. Clearances $74,000,000. Exports $150,000.

Governments active and excited, and the closing rates are the highest on record. The operations in new bonds exceeded three millions in '65s alone. Coupons of '81, 123⅛@123¼; do. '62, 124⅜@124½; do. '64, 122⅞@123; do. '65, 123@123¼; do. new, 12 ⅝@121⅞; do. '67, 121⅞@122; do. '68, 121⅝@121¾; 10-40's, 112⅞@113; Pacifics, 109¼@109⅝.

State bonds dull but steady; Missouris, 87¾; old Tennessees, 63; new, 57; old Virginias, 58½; new, 61; old North Carolinas, 56½; new, 50½.

Stocks generally strong and buoyant, particularly at Saratoga yesterday on the consolidation question.

Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, July 29.—As there is no stir of moment in trade, although the weather is very fine, the prices in the meantime rule quiet and steady at full prices.

MEMPHIS, July 29.—Cotton: receipts 17 bales; exports, none. Flour steady at $5,50@6. Wheat at $1,10@1,50. Corn at 98c@$1. Oats at 80@82c. Hay at $28. Bran at $19@20. Corn Meal at $4,50@4,75. Pork at $34,50. Lard at 20@22c. Bacon firm, with sales shoulders at 15¼, and sides at 19½c.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, July 28, 1869.

Business generally is quiet, and it is not likely that there will be any immediate improvement. As has been the case for some time past, the demand for almost everything is confined mainly to supplying immediate wants, while in regard to values there are no important changes.

The Chicago Republican of Wednesday comments as follows on the grain markets:

Our grain markets are moderately active to-day, and at times there was considerable excitement, a weak feeling prevailing on all hands. Telegraphic advices from the East and Liverpool markets were nominally unchanged from yesterday, but there was an evident desire on the part of the "longs" to realize, they evidently anticipating lower prices in the immediate future. The receipts were fair, very good for the season, and to this may be attributed some of the weakness, many fearing that the farmers are going to push their stocks forward so as to sell at the apparent high prices now ruling here. Then again the pleasant weather of the past few days is just what is needed to bring forward the crops, and will do very much toward saving the grain planted on low land, and operators have about come to the conclusion that the cry of short crops was premature.

APPLES—Firm and with very meagre arrivals, prices are tending upward. We now quote at $4@5 per bbl, for good to choice.

BUTTER—The demand is moderate, and the market quiet: we continue to quote at 23@25 for prime to choice.

BEANS—Sales at $1,75@2.

BROOMS—Quoted as follows: No. 5 $6,50; No. 4 $6: No. 3 $5, No. 2, plain, $4,50, and market firm.

CHEESE—Is in good supply and very dull—ranging from 14 to 17 cents as to quality, the outside figure for Goshen.

CARBON OIL—Is dull but unchanged; sales of 50 or 100 barrel lots, at 27@28, and in small lots, 29@30.

DRIED FRUIT—Very little inquiry, and prices nominal.

EGGS—Quoted at 18 @20c.

FLOUR—The flour market remains in the same condition it has been in for some time past—firm but unsettled and irregular, and in very light supply. There is not much uniformity in prices, dealers generally working in dependent of each other, and what is true of dealers is equally applicable to the mills. The demand is by no means urgent, as consumers generally are buying just enough to run them from one week to another, in anticipation of a decline, though as we have repeatedly stated, flour is relatively much cheaper here than it is in the west. Good to choice Spring Wheat brands are being sold at $7,00@7,25, and good Winter Wheat flours are offered at about the same figures.

GRAIN—Wheat is in steady milling demand but unchanged; sale 118 sks medium old Winter at $1,38; and 1 car fair Indiana white, (new) at $1,35. Prime old Red will bring $1,40. Oats firmer and in better demand; may be quoted at 70@71—on track, with a sale 1 car choice white reported at 72. Corn is less excited but unchanged—$1,00@1,05 for mixed to prime Yellow. Rye unchanged at $1,25.

GROCERIES—There is less activity in the grocery market, the demand for sugars having fallen off somewhat, while in the other articles, there are no new features worthy of special notice Compared with last week, prices have undergone no change whatever.

SUGARS—S H, 11½; A A, 13; Havana 14; Cuba, 12½; Porto Rico, 14@14½ Demarara, 15; New Orleans, but little prime in market and sells readily at 14@14½; lower grades, 13; Refined, Ex. C, 15½; E, 15¾; A, 16; Hard, 17.

MOLASSES—New Orleans of good quality is in strong request and bring 80@85; Porto Rico, 65@75.

SYRUPS—White Honey Drips, $1,15; Silver Drips, 90c; Jersey, 90c; Golden 70; Amber, 60; Common, 50.

COFFEE—Fair to Good Rio, 20@22; Prime, 24¼@25; Choice, 26@26½.

RICE—Carolina, 9¾c@10c; Rangoon, 9.

TEAS—Young Hyson, $1,00@1,80, G. P., $1,10 to 1,90. Imperial, $1,40 to 1,80, Oolong, 85 to $1,45. Sou Chong, 90c to $1,50.

STARCH—Pearl, 7½; Silver Gloss, 11½c, and Corn Starch, 12½c.

CONCENTRATED LYE—$8,00 per case.

FRUITS—Layer Raisins, $3,50 per box; Matt do, $7,50; Prunes, 13½c; Currants 12½c; Vallencia Raisins 14½.

SPICES—Cassia, 75c; Cloves, 45c; grain Pepper, 36 Allspice, 35c; Nutmegs, $1,50.

BAR LEAD—12½c; Shot, $3,25 per bag.

SOAPS—"Babbit's," 12c; "Oakely's," 11c; Rosin, 5 to 7c; "Dobbin's," 15c; Wax, 10c; Chem. Olive, 9c.

CANDLES—Mould, 15½c; Star, 23½c.

BI CARB SODA—$6¼ per 100.

HAY—Baled is in fair demand and limited supply; quoted at $25@28, for good to prime. New crop is selling from wagon at $20@25.

HEMP—Last sales at $205.

HUSKS—Sales at 2¾@3 cts per pound.

LIME—Cleveland Lime is quoted at $2,50, per bbl, and Common White at $1.75.

LARD OIL—No. 1, at 1,43@1.45; No. 1 Extra, $1,47@1,48; and No. 2, at $1,08@$1,10.

POTATOES—In rather better demand but unchanged at $1,50@1,75 per barrel.

POULTRY—Sales of spring chickens, at 65@70 per pair.

PROVISIONS—Firmer and higher. We now quote at 15@15¼ for shoulders: 18@19 for Ribbed and Clear Sides; 19 for Plain and 23½@24 for Sugar Cured Hams, and 17½@18 for Breakfast Bacon. Lard, 20¼ in tierces and 20¾@21 in half bbls and kegs. Mess Pork, $33½.

PEANUTS—Small sales at 12.

SALT—Allegheny River brands are quoted, by the car load, 1, at $1,75@80.

CINCINNATI, July 29.—Flour unchanged; family $6@6,25. Wheat in good demand and firm at the city mills and for shipments; sales 12,000 bush. new red at $1,20@1,24; new white $1,40@1,50, and one lot of very choice white sold at $1,55. Corn scarce and in demand at 80c. Oats in better supply and prices lower; old 73@75c; new 60@65c. Rye steady at $1. Tobacco firm; sales 153 bhds. at $6@18,50. Whisky advanced to $1,10, and the market closes firm. Provisions firmer; Mess Pork sold at $33,55. Bulk meats held at 13¼@13⅝c for shoulders, 16¼@16½c for sides. Bacon at 15c for shoulders, 18¼@18¾c for sides; the demand was moderate, only holders not offering to sell freely at the quotations. Sugar cured Hams 23@24c. Lard at 14@19½c. Butter firm at 24@30c. Eggs at 13@14c. Linseed Oil at 98c@$1,00. Lard Oil at 35@40. Petroleum at 29@31c for refined. Groceries in good demand at full rates. Gold at 136 buying. Exchange firm at par buying; the money market is easy.

CHICAGO, July 29.—Cattle quiet and easier at $3.25@4,85 for common to good cows; $5,40@5,63 for light: $6,50@7,25 for fair to good shipping beeves. Hogs active and excited and 15@25c higher; $9,10@9,25 for common; $9,35@9,50 for fair to medium; $9,60@9,75 for good to choice.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

WALTER SAVAGE LANDER. A Biography. By John Forster. In eight books. Published by Fields, Osgood & Co., Boston. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co., Pittsburgh.

The biography of this gifted author, who had occupied such a commanding position in the literary world, is a rich storehouse of thought. Lander was a remarkable man, and possessed rare gifts, with a temperament, however, of the most singular type, and which was the cause of much personal unhappiness and disquietude to his friends. It is a volume of singular ability, and gives proof of his genius, culture, and varied talents. Not only was he the author of some of the most exquisite poetry in the English language, but his prose writings show the same marked ability. Mr. Forster has exhibited much taste in presenting such a faithful portraiture of the gifted Lander. The copious extracts illustrate his singular versatility and command of the English language. The work is divided into eight books, in which a number of extracts appear from his published works. Its excellencies cannot be described, and must be read to understand them. Literary persons will enjoy the volume for its intrinsic merits aside from other considerations. No criticism can readily convey its character, as a literary production, and no one was so well fitted to prepare it as Mr. Forster. We should like to give a fuller synopsis, but space will not permit.

ELEMENTS OF ASTRONOMY. Designed for Academies and High Schools. By Elias Loomis, LL.D., Professor of Natural Philosophy and Astronomy in Yale College, etc. Published by Harper & Brothers, New York.

Those who have seen Prof. Loomis's "Treatise on Astronomy," have an idea of the character of this work, as it is prepared on the same plan, with the omission of the mathematical portions. This beautiful science is brought within the range of those who have not mastered the more difficult and abstruse problems in the higher parts of this study. It will aid, very materially, persons in obtaining suitable instruction of an elementary character, before studying higher grades of the science. The ample and excellent illustrations, and descriptions, will aid students very considerably. Its simple, concise arrangement, facilitates the study of the science, and we anticipate this work will be equally as popular as his former work. Dr. Loomis is an authority among scientific men, and this work will add to his good name.

MY DAUGHTER ELINOR. A Novel. Published by Harper & Brothers, New York.

Complaints are frequently heard of the dearth of American novel writers. This reason is assigned for employing English talent to supply our magazine matter and works of fiction. But this work is thoroughly American, and is quite readable, and shows the author has real talent both in construction and delineation of the leading characters.

LIFE OF JEFFERSON DAVIS, WITH A SECRET HISTORY OF THE SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY. By Edward A. Pollard, author of "The Lost Cause," &c. Published by National Publishing Company, Philadelphia and Chicago.

Thousands will welcome this book, not from sympathy with the subject or cause, but to read the views of those who lived in the South during the rebellion and espoused its cause. The work reveals many important facts in the history of the rebellion and the course of Davis. It will serve the purpose, too, of presenting the rebel side of the war. The author deals heavy blows on Davis, and pummels him with rigid severity. Facts are brought to light that serve to place certain public characters in a strange attitude. Mr. Pollard seems disposed to be unbiased and generous in his views, though the coloring is the outgrowth of a Southern mind. The style is florid and yet graceful, and we think just such a work as agents will find ready sale. The manner in which the work is gotten up reflects also credit upon the publishers. For sale only by agents, and not in book stores. The publishers offer liberal inducements to agents.

PAPERS FROM OVER THE WATERS: a Series of Letters from Europe. By Sinclair Tousey. Published by the American News Company, New York. For sale by John W. Pittock, Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh.

However beaten the track may be of familiar routes, a wide awake traveler will always find something new to write about. Familiar as the places and the scenes of which Mr. Tousey describes we can readily discover its excellencies, especially in the matter-of-fact-manner in which men and things are described, and these descriptions, too, are stripped of the prolific verbiage frequently found in books of travel. The author reveals a mind trained methodically and his views are straightforward, as well as interesting. It is also for sale by W. A. Gildenfenny, Fifth avenue.

WANDERING RECOLLECTIONS OF A SOMEWHAT BUSY LIFE. An Autobiography. By John Neal. Published by Roberts Brothers, Boston.

Few American authors enjoy a fairer reputation than Mr. Neal. He is one of the few of the old school, like Bryant. An autobiography of such a character, of seventy-three years of age, could not be otherwise than full of incidents of the most readable kind. Many who have admired Mr. Neal's versatility will welcome the work, and those who desire to read the account of a life of such varied interest, will do well to get this volume. His association with the bright lights in the literary world in this country and Europe, will be enjoyed with great zest by multitudes. The work is elegantly printed and bound, and is creditable to the house.

HINTS FOR SIX MONTHS IN EUROPE. Being the programme of a tour through parts of France, Italy, Austria, Saxony, Prussia, the Tyrol, Switzerland, Holland, Belgium, England and Scotland, in the summer of 1868. By John H. B. Latrobe. Published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia.

Knowing Mr. Latrobe full well to be worthy of the utmost confidence, in what he describes, and capable of doing it well, we are quite willing to compliment him for the excellent plan mapped out for tourists, who may need such information as he imparts in this volume. The modest preface reveals the culture and breeding of a gentleman, and this spirit permeates the entire narrative. The views of one so competent, and over a route of such interest, and not traveled over with haste, cannot fail to interest the reader, and also furnish something new even in old traveled routes. We think its circle of readers will be a wide and appreciative one.

MOPSA THE FAIRY. By Jean Ingelow. With eight illustrations. Published by Roberts Brothers, Boston.

It is enough to say that this fairy story is one of Miss Ingelow's creations. It gives ample evidence of the glowing style of this charming writer, and illustrates a species of word reveling that charms, as well as instructs. The story represents the wandering of a bright lad in the realms of fancy, and his rescue of a princess from her imprisonment and restoration to her true loyalty. Finally, of his descent from the regions of fancy to facts. Young people will enjoy this story, as it is told by one gifted in this field of thought. No doubt even men and women will enjoy the reading of this book. Several lyrics of the most musical cast may be found in the book now first published.

THE NEW COMMANDMENT; OR ELLA'S MINISTRY. Published by Warren & Blakeslee, Boston. For sale by S. A. Clarke & Co., Wood street, Pittsburgh.

Works of this character serve a double purpose, by imparting instruction and illustrating cardinal principles in morals and religion. "The New Commandment," "that ye love one another," is here wrought out in the patience and love of a little girl hedged about with the keenest and most tempting assaults, and yet she kept herself "unspotted from the world." It ought to be a safe book to be placed in the hands of young people. This house has a fine reputation for publishing good works.

THE BOAT-BUILDER'S FAMILY; or Good Resolutions and How to Keep Them. By Rev. Z. A. Mudge, author of "The Fisher Boy," etc. Published by Warren & Blakeslee, Boston. For sale by S. A. Clarke & Co., Pittsburgh.

Young people will find this story of more than ordinary interest. Principles are brought out in bold relief, illustrative of the saving grace of God. The characters are cleverly drawn, and show the author to be well versed in depicting scenes of every day life in large cities. The reading of this book will also awaken tender interest in the eventful career of young John Reeder, ending so auspiciously.

PATTY GRAY'S JOURNEY, From Boston to Baltimore. By Caroline H. Dall. Published by Lee and Shepard, Boston. For sale by S. A. Carke & Co. Pittsburgh.

No doubt the good name of Mrs. Dall will attract many to read this work. Despite the specialty of the work, picture life at the South, especially what the colored people most need, there is a vein of racy sketches that will interest young people. The author understands how to write for young minds, rather a rare gift. This is the first of the series of books for children by this author. It is easily to be seen the author is rather liberal in religious matters.

LAMPS, PITCHERS AND TRUMPETS. By Rev. Edwin Paxton Hood, Minister of "Queen Square Chapel, Brighton." Author of "Wordsworth: an Asthetic Biography." Published by M. W. Dodd, New York. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co., 193 Liberty street, Pittsburgh.

Titles like the above appear sensational, and yet this book is not of that character, though much of the matter is quaint, humorous, and bordering on the ridiculous. It is a collection of lectures delivered to the students of Spurgeon's Pastors' College by Rev. Mr. Hood. The discourses are based on the story of Gideon, when he divided his men into three companies, put a trumpet in every man's right hand, and a pitcher in the other, and a lamp within the pitcher. The author very happily classifies preaching and shows that one class addresses the intellect, shedding light upon the truths they discuss—these are the lamps. Another startles the conscience from apathy—these are the trumpets. Another soothes and consoles—these are the pitchers. Taking the work as a whole, it is a remarkable one, and is a substantial addition to theological literature. All phases of mind, characteristics and peculiaries of the pulpit in olden time, are here happily illustrated. Despite the oddities and quaintness of portions of the book, it clearly demonstrates the great talents of many of the early preachers. We are to have a second series illustrating the modern pulpit.

CIPHER. A Romance. By Jane G. Austin. Published by Sheldon & Co., New York. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co., Pittsburgh.

One of the interesting features of that capital Magazine, the Galaxy, was this serial, as it appeared monthly, during which it awakened much interest in its reading, as the story progressed from month to month. We are not disposed to pick flaws in its construction and portrayal of some of its characters, but regard it as a very creditable work of the author. Its dramatic force, graceful style, and the independent course of the fair author, commend it to readers of fiction. The crowning feature is its pure and elevated tone, which will go far towards extending its circulation, and increasing the reputation of the author.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the livor and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens into the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use, unless with great care,) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abcesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflamation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to eat food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all bilious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 325 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparation with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. mv19:151-d&F

Pay Your Taxes.—To day and tomorrow are the last days a discount of five per cent will be allowed on Taxes. Our readers should bear this in mind.

Selling Liquor on Sunday.—Information was made at the Mayor's office, yesterday, against Julia Ferguson, of Hardscrable, for selling liquor on Sunday. Warrent issued.

Blown Down.—During the storm on Wednesday evening a portion of the Fire Alarm Telegraph in the twelfth ward was blown down, the damage was repaired yesterday and the line is in working order.

We have received from W. S. Haven & Co., Printers, Stationers and Binders, the monthly calender used by this house for August. It gives the arrivals and departures of all mails, times of closing, &c. Haven's place is corner of Third and Wood.

Roof on Fire.—The alarm of fire yesterday afternoon from box 47, Niagara engine house was caused by the ignition from sparks from the chimney, of the roof on a frame dwelling house, on 14th street. The fire was extinguished with a few buckets of water and with little damage.

Burglary at West Newton.—At an early hour yesterday morning the dwelling house of Mr. A. Stephenson at West Newton, on the line of the Connellsville Railroad, was entered by burglars, who carried off $1,600 in greenbacks from a bureau drawer in Mr. Stepenson's sleeping apartment. No clue.

Under the head of For Sale will be found a rare opportunity to parties wishing to buy 3 Stills of large dimensions; 2 Boilers; 2 Keystone Steam Pumps; 1 Iron Agitator and some 700 feet of good gas pipe. All the above with full particulars can be found at Erny, Jegerman & Co's Works, near Sharpsburg Bridge.

In explanation of the allegation of Mrs. Annie Laurie, set forth in an item published yesterday, we have been informed that the looking glass was taken away by Mr. Bird by reason of the non-fulfillment of the contract made at the time it was purchased, viz: that a certain amount should be paid weekly until it had been paid for.

Runaway Arrested.—A boy, whose name we failed to learn, was arrested on a telegraphic dispatch yesterday, from Johnstown. He was an orphan, had been living there in the family of Mr. Glass, and, through some freak, concluded to throw off the protection of his benefactor. He was sent back to Johnstown during the afternoon.

Distributed.—We stated a few days ago that the Hope Fire Company, of Allegheny, had about $1,200 in their possession which they feared would fall into the city treasury in the event of the adoption of a Paid Fire Department. They have since held a meeting, at which it was decided to divide the money equally. Each member will thus get about twenty-five dollars. That ends the matter.

Showman in Litigation.—Yesterday, G. W. Richards appeared at Alderman Donaldson's office and caused a foreign attachment to be issued against E. Stowe, proprietor of a traveling side show now exhibiting in East Liberty. Richards alleged Stowe was indebted to him to the amount of fifty-two dollars, and he took this method of collecting the same. It was a success. He got his money.

A Mistake.—Yesterday afternoon three buckets of blackberries were taken from the Connellsville Depot. The owner missing them, procured an officer, and eventually discovered them in possession of another gentleman, who said he had been looking for some berries shipped to him, and had supposed them to be his property. He paid for the berries and the proceedings were carried no farther.

Absconding Apprentice.—Jacob Schlieter arrived in the city yesterday from Philadelphia in search of an absconding apprentice named Sheridan. The boy had been indentured to Moore, Schlieter & Co., brickmakers, Philadelphia, and becoming tired of the business had suddenly disappeared, coming, as it was ascertained, to Pittsburgh. Officer Bell had the matter in charge and succeeded in apprehending Sheridan, who was taken back yesterday afternoon.

Watch Recovered.

Some time since we published an account of a robbery at the house of Mr. Connor, on Ninth street, at which time a watch was stolen. Officers Long and McCready yesterday recovereed the watch. They found it in the possession of a hackman, called "Archey," who was arrested and after the watch was recovered stated that he had purchased it from James Williams. Williams was also arrested and confirmed "Archey's" statement. He alleges that he purchased it from a stranger. No person was prosecuted.

Brass Spiggots.

J. Fisher, colored, janitor at the Union Depot, was arrested upon informations made before Mayor Brush, yesterday, by John Kestner and M Gruber, saloon keepers, charging him with the larceny of two brass spiggots valued at $7.50 each. It seems Jerry attempted to sell one of the spiggots to Kestner, who immediately claimed it as one which had been stolen from him the day before. The other one was also recognized by Gruber as one missed by him. Jerry stoutly denied any theft, and stated that the spiggots had been thrown into his room, at the Depot, wrapped up in a small bag, about a week ago, an assertion which he asserts his ability to prove. All artjeles of small value thrown into his room are his property, and thus he says he kept the spiggots. He gave bail for a hearing to day.

Coroner's Inquest.

Coroner Clawson yesterday held an inquest on the body of John McAlpine, an account of whose death we published yesterday morning. The jury returned the following verdict;

"That the deceased, John McAlpine, came to his death while laboring under a temporray fit of insanity, by falling or jumping between the cars of the C. & P R. R. mail train No. 19 in the borough of Sewickley, on Tuesday morning, July 28th, 1869."

The deceasad was formerly a resident of this city, and a partner in the wholesale grocery firm of Leech, McAlpine & Co., who in years gone by did an extensive business in their former warehouse, on Liberty street, near head of Wood. Some years since, accompanied by his family, he removed to Wyandotte, Kansas, where he became largely interested in farming matters. He had frequently visited the city on business since he left.

OHIO PRESBYTERY.

Trial of Rev. S. P. Linn—The Testimony. The Prosecution Closes—Spicy Discussions &c.

THIRD DAY—MORNING SESSION.

Presbytery convened at ten o'clock A. M., and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The minutes of the preceding session were read and approved.

Dr. Jacobus, stated that he desired to correct his testimony taken at a previous session and approved by him, wherein it referred to subscribing for Mr. Linn's book. He stated on his cross examination that to the best of his knowledge he had not subscribed for the book and never knew until to-day that he was considered as a subscriber, although a copy of the book had been left at his house. Since that time, Mr, Linn has shown me the original subscription list on which my name appears and I now desire to state that I did subscribe for the book.

It was suggested by a member of the court that the defendant was absent and it would be better to wait until he was present.

Dr. Jacobus stated that Mr. McKaig, defendant's counsel was present and could attend to the matter, and the correction could be made immediately.

Mr. McKaig replied that he had not had time to consult fully with the defendant and did not know what course he intended to pursue in the matter and consequently could not answer for him.

The Moderator decided to defer the matter for the present.

Mr. W. H. Beatty, stated clerk, moved that the clerk be authorized to procure a case of some description provided with a lock and key, in which to keep papers of the Presbytery, and to draw upon the Treasury for the cost of the same. Adopted.

A MEMBER AGGRIEVED.

Mr. McElwain desired to call the attention of the Presbytery to a matter which interested him and the court also. He was reported by name in one of the daily papers, as taking a course which if true, would render him unfit to sit as a member of this court, in the adjudication of this case.

He called for a copy of the paper containing the article referred to, when the Evening Mail was produced and an extract read from an editorial, reflecting on the course pursued by Drs. McKinney and McElwain.

Dr. Marshall stated in explanation the reporter as not responsible for the article, but it came from the Editors.

Dr. McKinney thought that a minute should be entered upon the record declaring the charges to be false and slanderous.

Dr. Marshall moved that such entry be made, and a vote being taken, the motion prevailed.

Rev. Mr. Braddock stated that this motion might lead to a misunderstanding as it might be so construed as to leave the opinion that that was the only false and slanderous publications that have appeared in the public print, which was certinly erronous, as he had read editorials in some of the city papers equally false and slanderous.

Dr. Wilson stated in explanation, that he had known the reporter of the Evening Mail for a number of years and he would take the responsibility of saying that he was not the author of the article.

A vote was then taken and the motion decided in the affirmative without a "dissenting vote." The vote in the affirmative was, however, not a very full one, as there were but two or three feeble "ayes" heard, all proceeding from Dr. McIlwaine's corner of the house.

The Presbytery waited for some time on the committee appointed to take the testimony, which, however, did not appear.

The hour of half past twelve having arrived, Presbytery adjourned until two o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Presbytery convened at two o'clock, and was called to order by the Moderator. Prayer by Rev. Mr. Hazlett.

The minutes of the morning session were then read and approved.

Mr. Collier, from the Committee appointed to take testimony, reported that the Committee had met, and, in the absence of Dr. Scovel, Mr. Collier was appointed Moderator and Mr. Ferris clerk. The Committee then proceeded to take the testimony of Messrs. Moore and Patterson, but had been unable to get the testimony of the servant girl, "Ella."

Mr. Ferris then read the following testimony:

W. D. Moore, being duly sworn, testified as fellows in regard to the assault on the Suspension bridge.

Saw Mr. Linn coming along with a lady; saw some man coming up behind; the man used some profane expression, and struck Mr. Linn, and Mr. L's hat fell off; Mr. Linn begged pardon and immediately ran towards Allegheny, leaving his hat; the man started after Mr. Linn; followed but a short distance, and came back and asked the woman what she was doing with that man?

Q. Could Mr. Linn hear any remarks between the man and woman after the striking? A. I think not.

Q. What became of the hat? A. I picked it up and carried it to the Allegheny end and then back to the Pittsburgh end, and left it at the toll house with Mr. Long.

Q. Do you know the woman? A. No.

Q. When did this occur? A. About election time last fall.

Q. Is it generally known throughout the shop? A. I think no one knows it but the parties in my office.

Q. What time in the evening? A. A little after dark.

Q Where is the hat? A. It is still in the hands of Mr. Long, who was toll keeper when the hat was left with him. He is a police officer now in Pittsburgh. Don't think the man was drunk.

Cross examination—Q My full name is Wm. D. Moore; reside on Beaver street, Allegheny; am a member of the coachmaking firm of Workman, Moore & Co.; cannot tell the month, but it was during the election excitement; don't remember whether there was a torch light procession that night; the bridge was not much crowded; very few were about where we were. I think the man said to Mr. Linn, "You ——, what are you doing with my wife?" I am sure this man struck Mr. Linn from behind. Mr. Linn turned to apologize. The man did not give him time, but started after him. Mr. Linn ran; I think Mr. Linn said, "beg your pardon, sir," or something like that; Mr. Linn ran towards the Allegheny toll gate; I think this occurred between the first pier and the toll gate.

Q. Did Mr. Linn cross the roadway? A. Did not see Mr. Linn after he ran away.

Q Why did you not leave the hat at the Allegheny gate? A. Don't know why.

Q. Why did you take it to the Pittsburgh side? A. We were making sport of what had happened; did not think of leaving it at the Allegheny end; never spoke to Mr. Linn after this affair; Mr. Marshall called to pay a bill and asked me about the affair.

C. Have you any reason to believe that Mr. Linn knew where the hat was before this morning? A. I have not.

Q. Has this matter been spoken of generally? A. I think not; a good many have spoken to me about it since I told it.

Re-direct—Q. Did you tell Mr. Long what had happened when you left the hat? A. I did.

By Committee—Did you see Mr. Linn insult this lady in any way? A. I did not. When this affair took place we were going towards Pittsburgh and they were coming towards Allegheny.

Q Did Mr. Linn run past you without appealing to you for help? A. He did.

Re-cross-examination—Were you near the parties when this occurred? A. Yes.

Q. How near? A. About twenty feet.

Q. Did anything particularly attract your attention to defendant before the striking occurred? A. No.

Q. Could you see them? A. I could see them distinctly.

Approved by the witness.

Evidence of Mr. Patterson, who was duly sworn—My name is George W. Patterson; reside on Ridge street, Allegheny; am acquainted with Mr. Linn, but not intimately; know him by his coming to my house to see my daughter.

Q—Did he come with your approval? A. He dtd not.

Q.—Why did you disapprove of his coming? A. As a prudent parent I thought it not best for him to come; don't wish to say anything derogatory of Mr. Linn; my reasons are private.

Q.—Did you forbid him the house? A. I did, and said it would be a particular favor to my self and daughter if he would not come. Mr. Linn came to my house and inquired for my daughters. I told him they were not at home. I said, "Mr. Linn, I have a favor to ask of you that you would discontinue your visits to my house. It would be a favor to myself and daughters if you would do so."

Q. Had your daughters made complaint to you of his treatment? A. My daughters did not; but my daughter did.

Q. Did any other one than a member of your family warn you against Mr. Linn? A. No.

Cross examination—Did you ever have any intimate personal acquaintance with Mr. Linn? A. I did not.

Q. Did you ever converse with Mr. Linn previous to the evening above referred to? A. I did; before he went to Cleveland.

Q. Did you ever witness any misconduct on the part of Mr. Linn towards your daughters? A. I did not.

Q. Did your daughters appeal to you for protection on the evening on which you requested him to leave the house? A. My daughters did not appeal to me for protection against Mr. Linn in his presence, or he would have left the house mighty quick.

Q Did your daughters ever appeal to you for protection? A. No; but they made complaint against Mr. Linn.

Q Did they ever state the reason of the complaint? A. My youngest daughter did.

Q. What was the reason? A. I decline to answer; my reasons are private.

Q. Did you ever speak to Mr. Linn about the reason why you requested him to leave the house. A. I did not.

Q. Did you ever speak of this outside of the house? A. It is likely I did.

Q. What is the name and age of your daughter? A Would rather not state the age and name of my daughter.

The testimony was then read and approved by the witness.

At the conclusion of the reading of the report of the Commission to take testimony, Rev. Dr. Jacobus came forward and renewed his application to have his testimony corrected.

After renewing his statement as published in our report of the morning proceedings, he further stated that he had been informed, after giving his testimony, that Mr. Linn had his name on the list of subscribers to the book, and he now desired to have the amendment made.

Mr. Linn said he had no objections to having this verbal correction made, but he must positively decline to permit the record to be changed. The witness had been asked the question specifically and answered it positively. The testimony had been read to the witness and approved by him. His reasons for objecting were that he veribly believed that if Dr. Jacobus had not ascertained that he, Mr. Linn, had in his possession the evidence of that subscription, this correction would not have been made.

(The audience here applauded heartily by clapping their hands and stamping.)

The Moderator called the house to order and stated, in an excited manner, that if such conduct was repeated the house would be cleared of outsiders immediately.

Rev. Mr. Braddock moved that the house be instantly cleared of all outsiders, except the reporters.

Some diacussion ensued on this motion, after which it was withdrawn, by permission of the Cour.

In order to avoid the objection raised by Mr. Linn, the prosecution re-called Dr. Jacobus and examined him as to the matter.

Mr. Marshall stated that he had desired to show the audience that Dr. Jacobus had given the explanation to his testimony at the time he was first examined, but the clerk had not taken it down.

Mr. S. Riddle, sworn—I was sometime since Postmaster in Allegheny, from April, 1861 to August, 1866.

Q Do you know whether Mr. Linn received lewd publications through the Allegheny Postoffice? A. I received one day during my official term a package address to the number of Mr. Linn's box, but not addressed to him by name; the matter contained in the package somewhat surprised me, being addressed to a Theological student. I delivered the package to him in person and remarked that it was not addressed to him by name, but was addressed to the number of the box, and I thought there might be some mistake. He replied that it was "all right" and received the package.

Cross Examined.—Q. When was this? A. I could not name the year; the matter is firmly fixed in my mind; it was during your first Theological term; did not see the inside of that package.

Q How did you know that this package contained impure publications? A. You could better answer that question if you had seen the outside of and handle as many packages of that character as I have. At that time matter of that character was illicit, now it is illegal.

Q. Can you swear, not having seen the inside of that package, that it contained impure publications? A. Yes, sir; I never knew of Mr. Linn receiving other packages of that character.

Q Do you know that Mr. Linn was postman at that time for the Seminary? A. No, I did not; I mentioned the matter in a confidential manner to a friend with no intention that it should be made public, or brought into this case; that friend indirectly mentioned the matter.

Q. To whom did you mention it? A. Robert McKnight was the man to whom I mentioned the matter.

Mr. McKinney objected to meationing the names; names should be considered sacred, unless necessary to be bought out.

Mr. Linn wished to have the matter recorded, as Mr. McKnight had been subpœnaed as a witness, but he decided not to press the matter.

Mr. Linn—I have been charged with having received and having denied the receipt of lewd publications through the Allegheny Postoffice; do you think the fact of my receiving such a package a year ago sufficient proof that I was in the habit of receiving such packages.

Moderator—That is a matter of opinion to be decided by the Court and not by the witness.

Re-direct—Could tell the character of that package by its size and shape across the room.

Re-Cross-examined—Q. Did not two or three persons frequently occupy the same box? A. It is illegal for two persons to have the same box; I considered two theological students a family and allowed two of them to occupy one box jointly.

Q. Does not mail matter of that character frequently come to persons when not ordered? A. Yes. That was the reason why I called Mr. Linn's attention to this package. The book was obscene. I never read any of the matter, but have seen the pictures. They were of a very obscene character Do not know that Mr. Linn sent for or ordered this package. I have not been urged to testify in this matter.

In reply to a question by a member of the Court—The seminary had no box—by the word term I meant the course. It was not the first year.

Q. Did publications of that character come to the boxes of other students?

Objected to by Dr. McKinney on the ground that the Court did not desire to implicate any other students. [Laughter.] A. Not to my knowledge.

Testimony revised and corrected.

Mr. McKinney said that there were several witnesses they wished to examine, to prove facts which they thought could be proven, but unfortunately the witnesses names had not been placed on the copy of the charges served upon Mr. Linn, and consequently could not be examined as the defense were entitled to ten days' notice. Owing to a mistaken idea of the Chairman of the Committee, who was of opinion that members of the Court could be called upon to testify instanter and the defense could not object. The matter, however, was in the hands of the Court, to say whether the case should close here, or whether it would order an adjournment for ten days, in order to allow the prosecution to get that testimony in.

Dr. McKaig said it was not the province of the court to adjourn in order to give the prosecution the time they ask for. Presbytery had resolved itself into a court to try the case of Mr. Linn and must proceed with the case until it was concluded.

Dr. McKinney made a windy speech in order to convince the court that it had a right to adjourn for a sufficient length of time to allow the prosecution to make out a case against Mr. Linn. He referred to the rules of the Presbytery relative to procuring witnesses who had been legally cited but failed to attend in order to convince the court that it would apply to witnesses who had not been cited.

Mr. Linn objected to postponement in a very strong and convincing argument holding that it would be an act of injustice to the defendent as well as a violation of the rules of the Presbytery. After some further argument Mr. Linn closed, and was again applauded by the audience.

The Moderator called the house to order, and in explanation of some imputations by Mr. Linn as to his counsel having been cut off by the rulings of the Moderator, which fact had been published in the city papers, he desired to say that he had ruled as he thought right, and in consequence of that ruling had "winked" at the fact that the gentlemen selected as counsel, but who had been ruled out by the Court, was in constant consultation with the defendant.

Mr. Linn protested against this charge. Mr. Bittenger, he said, had not been in consultation with him.

Mr. Bittenger also objected to the Moderator's language. He alleged that he had not been in consultation with Mr. Linn.

Mr. Braddock rose to a point of order, which was that Dr. Bittenger, not being a member of the Court, had no right during a trial of this character, to take part in the proceedings.

The Moderator declined to entertain the point of order and allowed Dr. Bittenger to proceed.

After some further explanation by Dr. Bittenger, which was assailed by illnatured remarks from Drs. Braddock and Ferris, the matter was dropped.

Dr. Marshall obtained the floor and made a strong and forcible argument against the continuance of the case or an adjournment. He said that the matter might be continued from time to time for the same reason, and never brought to a close. He protested against any continuance.

Mr. McKaig, consel for Mr. Linn, objected in very forcible terms against a continuance.

Dr McKinney said this matter could be settled if the defense would waive the ten days notice required by the rules, and allow the prosecution to call witnesses that were now in the house. If it was desired to throw light on the case, it could be reached in this way.

Dr. McKaig took exception to Dr. McKinney's manner of stating his case. He did not like to have him impugn the motives of the defense in adhering to the rules and regulations of Presbytery, whereupon Dr. McKinney replied that he had made no such assertion.

This led to an exciting debate between the reverend gentlemen, which had to be checked by the Moderator.

The discussion was then continued on the question of adjournment.

Dr. McKinney—Mr. Moderator, we have witnesses to prove some of the charges on this presentment far worse than they are alleged.

Mr. Linn—I object to this imputation. I must call Dr. McKinney to order. I have been covered all over with odium and reproach by his assertions made upon hearsay. I cannot retain my feelings, Mr. Moderator.

Moderator—If you cannot retain your feelings, you must retain your seat.

The Moderator allowed Mr. McKinney to proceed, but was finally compelled to call him to order.

After some further argument it was ascertained that there was no motion before the house, and the Moderator decided that he could not allow any further discussion until there was some motion made.

Dr. Marshall thought the Prosecuting Committee had used all due vigilance in prosecuting the case, and having brought all the testimony before the Presbytery they could obtain, their mission was ended in that respect. He would therefore move that the testimony on the part of the prosecution be closed and that the defense proceed with the examination of witnesses.

The motion was adopted without discussion.

The Court then adjourned to meet at nine and a half o'clock this morning.

Cannibalistic.

Yesterday Mrs. Hitchings, residing in Hamilton's court, expressed her cannibalistic intentions towards Mary J. Stiff by threatening to eat her. Mary positively declined to allow any such disposition of her personality, and to render the process impossible so far as Mrs. Hitchings was concerned, she endeavored by a violent assault to deprive that lady of the power to do so by an operation familiarly known as knocking the teeth down the throat. Both ladies finding themselves thwarted in their designs, appealed to Alderman McMasters, who is endeavoring to settle the misunderstanding.

"Tired Nature's Sweet Restorer."

As a "sleepist," Edward McGann is a success. Others may simply sleep as a refreshing episode in the labor of life, but Edward has increased its enjoyment by reducing it to a system. With him it is both a science and an art. Edward is modest in his pretensions, but occasionally his peculiar genius in this respect becomes manifest, as it did yesterday. He was entrusted by the barman of a saloon up town to procure the "change" for a twenty dollar bill, which a customer had proffered in payment of certain potations. Edward, happy and animated as a policeman on duty, departed on his mission, while the customer and the confidential bar man awaited his return. Ordinarily, the matter should have occupied five minutes, but the minutes extended into hours and yet Edward returned not. Strange misgivings at length seized upon the vender of juleps and smashes, and to ease his anxiety he called at Alderman Taylor's office and secured the services of officer Bell to ascertain what accident had befallen Edward. The officer, after a diligent search, discovered Edward in another saloon not far away, enjoying himself immensely and endeavoring to surround a foaming glass of lager. Taken into the Alderman's presence he explained his absence. He had been asleep, caused by the soporific influence of the money. Upon returning from his journey in the land of dreams, all recollection of the filthy lucre had departed, and now he was only glad that the circumstances had been recalled so pleasantly, as it afforded him an opportunity of returning the same minus twenty cents, the disappearance of which he could not account for. Only this and nothing more. This beautiful and artistic explanation of the case failed to penetrate the Aldermanic obtuseness, and Edward was consequently held to bail for his appearance to-morrow, when the charged of larceny preferred against him by the bar-man will be considered.

A Horse Trade.

A few days ago Mr. Wm. Rodgers being in need of a horse, wended his way to the horse market, presided over by Mr. John Bowors. Among the number of fine animals which attracted his attention, he selected one valued at thirty-seven dollars, and according to his statement upon being assured that the beast was sound in wind, limb, and every other respect, paid over the money and departed. He had not proceeded three squares however, before his purchase began to exhibit unusual symptoms for a sound horse, and indications of a wind-broken condition. This was made clearly apparent when the horse suddenly stopped, unable to proceed farther, and assumed an appearance and acted not unlike a pair of bellows. Considering himself to be the victim of misrepresentations, Rodgers took the horse back and demanded his money, which he alleges was refused him. He then left the animal and made information before Alderman Donaldson against Bowers for false pretenses, making the allegations as set forth, upon which a warrant was issued.

Booty.

About a week ago James Laughlin found himself in need of a pair of boots. Being short of funds it required some financering skill to secure the needed articles but he managed the case, it is alleged in a very simple manner. Simple measures are sometimes more effective than exhaustive efforts, knowing a friend who was fortunately possessed of good credit at a certain shoe store, he seized upon the brilliant idea of using that friend's name, which he did, and as a result, without money and without price, rejoiced in the possession of a pair of the best French calf. It subsequently became apparent to the proprietor of the store, Mr. A. Johns, that the proceeding was somewhat irregular, as he states when the bill was presented to the friend he utterly denied knowledge of the transaction, and refused to pay the money. Under the circumstances Mr. Johns had no recourse but to fall back upon the original purchaser, which he did in the shape of an information for false pretence, before Alderman McMaster, yesterday, who issued a warrant for the arrest of Laughlin.

The "Friendship" Steamer.

Yesterday morning the new steamer for the Friendship Fire Company, of Allegheny, arrived in the city and was taken in charge by the Company. The machine was built at the Amoskeag Works, New Hampshire, and cost $4,500. It is what is called a second class engine, being much lighter than either the Gen. Grant or Hope steamers, but calculated to do about the same work under ordinary circumstances. The new steamer is a model of beauty and elegance, and the Friendship boys may well be proud at the practical result of their efforts to secure a good apparatus. It is built in the usual style, brass mounted, &c., &c., and is in every respect first class as regards the workmanship or appearance.

A preliminary trial was made yesterday and the result gave the best satisfaction. The machinery worked without a jar, and performed its work admirably. A second trial will take place to-day, when the throwing capacities of the machine will be put to the test. If it works as well in this respect as in others, it can certainly be classed among the best machines in the vicinity.

Base Ball and Law.

The Baltic Base Ball Club, of Wheeling, which visited our city a few days ago, if reports be true, has entered the field of litigation against the owners of the steamer Petrolia, for payment of their hotel bill while stopping at the Monongahela House. The "Baltics" allege that the defendants contracted to take them back to Wheeling Saturday night, but that the Petrolia left on Friday evening, and they were thus compelled to lay over until Monday. The defendants claim they fulfilled their agreement by placing the steamer "Belle" at the service of the "Base Ballists" on Saturday evening, but that they concluded to stay till Monday, to play another game. The affair has gone so far that it is expected the "Petrolia" will be tied up at Wheeling.

Only Two Days More.

J. W. Barker & Co., 59 Market and 20 Sixth (late St. Clair) street, must, by order of the administrator of the senior member of the firm (deceased) close out their entire stock of summer, fall and winter goods in two days. Wholesale and retail buyers should make a note of this, as every article has been marked down to prices that will secure their sale. Purchasers should call early in the morning, as the rush during the day is so great that with their additional hands, they find it difficult often to wait upon all. Let all our readers go to Barker's and lay in their supply of fall and winter goods at one-half the cost they will be compelled to pay when the season comes round.
